Indus School DARE graduation

INDUS SCHOOL REPORT

The Indus School sixth grade class graduated from the Drug Abuse Resistance Education program March 25, according to teacher Sara Wendt.

Koochiching County Sheriff's Deputy Jim Kennedy was present at the noontime ceremony to recognize students for completing the classroom education program.

Three students received awards for the DARE essay contest: Danielle Erickson, first place; Emma Morgan, second place; and Tiana Carlin, third place.

Class members received t-shirts and other DARE promotional items, as well as a pizza party following the program.

Junior Broncos

Intro to Competitive Swimming & Diving
Program Grades 4 and up

April 14 – 25
Monday – Friday
3:30 to 4:30
$35 per swimmer

The Junior Bronco program will bridge the gap between swim lessons and competitive swim programs, such as the BRONCO Swimming and Diving Team. Classes focus on learning and improving the four competitive strokes, starts, turns and finishes. There will also be a diving portion of the program. This program is run by Bronco Swimmers and Divers and Bronco Swimming and Diving Alumni. Jr. Broncos will also be able to show off their skills at a competitive swim meet at the end.

Call Community Education if you have any question or to register for this program.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH ANNOUNCED AT INDUS

The following students have been named "Students of the Month" at Indus School based on their exemplary behavior and attitudes, academic achievement or special achievement, and uniqueness. Four students are chosen from these groupings on a monthly basis: Grades 10-12, Grades 7-9, Grades 4-6, Grades K-3.

Students recognized in April for February in Elementary are:

Kelvin LaLonde

Kelvin's second grade teacher says he is a "responsible boy who works hard and does his best; he is also very helpful and polite."

Miranda Whitman

Third Grader, Miranda's winning, "never-give-up" attitude was what got her nominated. She is inspiring, works hard in class, and isn't afraid to ask questions to further her understanding of the subject matter. "She is a kind, softhearted student with a ready smile for everyone," says her nominator.

High School Students of the Month are:

Kyle Schiro

Seventh Grader, Kyle always participates and is engaged, says his math teacher. "He thinks outside the box and brings on some really thoughtful mathematical conversations. He is a positive young man and an excellent role model."

Damien Reed

Senior, Damien, a Teacher's Assistant in the art room, exemplifies the Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS) characteristics of being "responsible, respectful and prepared each day," says the art teacher. He helps and encourages others with their projects, anticipates when assistance is needed, and gives "100% of his attention and effort in class."
