LOCALNEWS

Charley Piano, left, hands Anna Ringhofer a bag of toys outside of Kmart Saturday. The second annual fill the ambulance effort moved its location from local grocery stores to Kmart this year to increase donations. Last year, 229 toys were collected and this year the effort brought in more than 400 toys.

All filled up

Toy drive deemed success

Local emergency responders joined forces over the weekend to help make the holiday season a little brighter for some Borderland families.

The second annual “fill the ambulance” effort, sponsored by the International Falls Fire and Ambulance Service and Police Department, ment, collected more than 400 toys, 78 pieces of clothing, several pounds of food and monetary donations. Everything was delivered to The Salvation Army Monday.

A post about the event on the International Falls Fire/Rescue/EMS Facebook page said, “We are so humbled by the members of the community that donated to our drive.”

DISTRICT COURT

An International Falls man was sentenced in Koochiching County District Court to nearly 5 years prison for felony sale of drugs.
