RRCC Student Senators spread Valentine love

RRCC STAFF REPORT

On Valentine’s Day, Feb. 14, Rainy River Community College Student Senators Anja Silvers and Makayla Boyer headed to Littlefork’s Jackpine Chateau Assisted Living Center to pass out hand-made Valentines created by RRCC students.

According to a news release, the students wanted to brighten the day of the residents and let them know they are loved and appreciated.

After handing each resident a Valentine, RRCC Student Senate Treasure

Silvers said, “The best part was seeing their faces light up. It made my day. It was a great experience and I’m so glad I was able to be a part of this!” The RRCC Senate is part of the Minnesota State College Student Association, an association of the Minnesota public two-year college students, which works to ensure accessible, quality, and affordable public higher education while providing students with representation, and communication across the state.
