New books in the junior room

Tomorrow, Thursday, Aug. 7, is the summer reading picnic at 12:30 p.m. Join us for hot dogs, sloppy joes, potato chips, pickles, Kool-Aid and ice cream. This will be the first chance to pick up summer reading t-shirts.

Don't forget to join us next Wednesday, Aug. 13, for the "Secret Life of Puppets" presented by Z Rosenchnoz Puppets for anyone ages 6 and up. This is an excellent opportunity to explore the world of puppetry and how it spurs the imagination.

Help the children in your life spend some time reading this month. It is always time to read. Here are some new junior room books that we are excited about sharing.

A new "I can Read" series featuring Eek and Ack, two goofy aliens is written by Blake Hoena. Eek and Ack discover black holes in "The Black Hole Report," try to conquer earth in "Eek Discovers Earth," make a pet in "Ack's New Pet" and zap a planet in "The Big Mistake."

Be sure and spend some time outside while the weather is still warm. "The Guy's Guide to Making the Outdoors More Awesome" by Eric Braun has some fun, interesting and clever ideas to explore and encourage discovery.

If your child is into creepy crawlies then be sure and check out Fleas by Valerie Bodden which includes large pictures of these animals bound to make you itch. If the scary is your game then try "Bachelor's Grove Cemetery and other Haunted Places of the Midwest" by Matt Chandler with reportedly haunted places all over the Midwest, but sadly lacking in places in Minnesota. We must not be very hautable as a state.

While field trips are wonderful, sometimes they aren't feasible. So here are a few books to allow you to explore places you might not be able to go including "Mountain Tops" or "Jungle Worlds," part of Earth's Last Frontiers by Ellen Labrecque. Or maybe you want to take a fantasy science field trip in "A Journey to the Center of the Earth" by Claire Throp.

Here are a couple of new chapter books for kids. "The Castle Behind Thorns" by Merrie Haskell is about Sand, a blacksmith's apprentice who wakes up in a broken castle and he must find a way to put it back together to get out.

Kids that love to cook might enjoy "All Four Stars" by Tara Dairman. It is about Gladys Gatsby who gets an opportunity to write a restaurant review for a big newspaper even if it means upsetting her parents who love fast food.

Young children looking for a fun, noisy alphabet book need look no further than "R is for Robot" by Adam Watkins.

The library has three permanent part-time job openings. The deadline to apply is Friday, Aug. 15. A completed library application is necessary to be considered and may be picked up at the library or found online at our website <http://internationalfallslibrary.us>. Job descriptions and details are available in the library or on the website.

PET OF THE WEEK

"Barney" is 12 weeks old, neutered and up-to-date on first set of shots. Barney is playful and loves attention. He is waiting to rescue that special child, that special family. Someone out there needs Barney. Just waiting for them to realize it. Currently in foster care.

MEMORIAMs

In loving memory of Charles K. Johnson (Cubby) — Aug. 5, 2009.

*We miss you in so many ways,
We miss the things you used to say;
And when old times we recall,
It's then we miss you most of all.*

Keitha and family
Karen and family
Teri and family
Lori and family

In loving memory of our dear sister, Peggy Ann Stevenson, who passed away 43 years ago, Aug. 6, 1971.

*We seem to see in the soft dim light,
A face we loved the best;
And think of her when the sun's last ray,
Goes down in the far off west.
We miss you no less as the time passes on,
Than we did on the day of your going;
For absence can never close the door of our hearts,
And the lamp of our love is still glowing.
Your heart was the truest in all the wide world,
Your love the best to recall;
For no one on earth could take your place,
You are still the dearest of all.*

Sadly missed by
Your brothers, sisters and family
