POLICE REPORT

Koochiching County Sheriff’s Office

Fire: Deputies responded Monday to a fire at the Lafky residence, 1240 Town Road 384, Baudette, where three vehicles and three outbuildings were damaged, reported a department official. Cause of the fire and a damage estimate has not yet been determined. Birchdale Fire Department also responded. No injuries were reported.

Burglary: An arrest has been made in a burglary reported Nov. 28 at a residence on Town Road 207, according to a department official. The property taken from the residence was recovered, he said.

Burglary: Tools and household items totaling a value of about $6,000 were reported taken Monday from the Douglas W. Brown residence, Big Falls Avenue, Big Falls. The investigation continues into the non-forced burglary, said a department official.

Hit-and-run: Moderate damage was reported Monday to a vehicle owned by Michael D. Hielscher struck while parked at the Y-Knot Quick Stop, Highway 71, where it was struck by a vehicle that left the scene.
