

2013 International Falls Bass Championship

John Peterson, Bemidji, who with brother and partner Duane Peterson were the 2012 IFBC champs, places a smallmouth into a container to bring onto stage Saturday. The team finished fifth with 30.85 pounds of bass.

Fish care is a high priority among a team of volunteers dedicated to ensuring that the temperature and oxygen levels in fish tanks are kept at the appropriate levels to keep the fish caught during the IFBC healthy prior to their return to the water.

Scott Thompson and Chad Budde fished Rainy Lake Friday and said they struggled in the tournament. They finished with 11.10 pounds.

A young volunteer assists anglers as they bring their catch to the big tent at Smokey Bear Park for weigh ins Saturday. Many volunteers are needed to operate the event.

Falls angler Rhonda Johnson get a cheer from the crowd Saturday as she shows a big smallmouth on stage while weighing her catch with teammate and husband Dale Johnson.

Kyle Potter shows off a nice bass as his partner Tyler Kocon dips more from the livewell Saturday. The Falls team finished in 21st place with 23.25 pounds.

Falls angler Tim Arnold casts into Rainy Lake Friday from the bow of the boat while partner Billy Bright take the back. The team finished the IFBC with 17.30 pounds of fish.
