Two suspects in burglaries in custody

JOURNAL STAFF REPORT

Two people suspected of involvement in burglaries in Koochiching and Beltrami counties are in custody at the Koochiching County Jail.

Brandon G. Howard, 34, Redby, and Holly B. Johnson 30, Redwood Falls, were arrested Sunday on the Red Lake Reservation, according to a news release from Beltrami County Sheriff Phil Hodapp.

Koochiching County Sheriff Brian Jespersen said it's likely property reported stolen in burglaries in the Northome area will be returned with the arrest of the suspects.

Jespersen said it's believed that the two suspects are responsible for several burglaries in the last month or so in the southern part of Koochiching County.

Hodapp reports the suspects were arrested by Red Lake Tribal Police who were assisting Beltrami and Koochiching County deputies with burglary investigations which occurred during the past month in northern Beltrami and southern Koochiching counties. Beltrami deputies contacted Red Lake Tribal Police when it was learned the suspects may be on the Red Lake Reservation in a vehicle stolen during one of the burglaries in Roosevelt Township earlier in July. Red Lake officers located the suspects and arrested them. Follow-up investigation by Beltrami County sheriff's investigators and a Red Lake police investigator led to the recovery of many of the items stolen in the burglaries.

Both Howard and Johnson have been transported to Koochiching County to face charges. Beltrami County investigators will be presenting cases to the Beltrami County Attorney's Office for review of additional charges once all the victims of the Beltrami burglaries have been contacted.

Since July 9, Beltrami County has experienced 11 reported burglaries in Roosevelt, Benville, Shooks, Spruce, Minnie and Bemidji Townships that have been linked to these burglars, according to Hodapp. Many of these burglaries occurred at seasonal cabins and unoccupied residences. Deputies have been checking the areas these burglars were frequenting in an attempt to locate any other undiscovered burglaries.
