Lady Slipper Festival

The annual Kabetogama Lady Slipper Festival, celebrating Minnesota's state flower, attracted vendors, festival goers and sunny weather last weekend. The annual event featured a 5-kilometer run/walk, locally made crafts, a car show, canoe rides, musical entertainment and fun for the entire family.

Inari Bitner, 7, sits still while she gets her face painted Saturday. Inari's mother reports that Inari is a "veteran face paintee" who loves to have different pictures drawn on her face.

A pair of 3-month-old goats, owned by Elizabeth Pendergast, find some shade during Saturday's festival. Pendergast, one of the vendors, was selling soap and other products she makes using goat milk.
