dents whose grade point averages are in the top 15 percent of the enrollment in each of the University's degree-granting colleges and schools. A student must have completed no fewer than 12 semester hours of academic work for the semester, of which eight or more hours must be graded work rather than "satisfactory/unsatisfactory."

International Falls students included on the list are Ladd Corrin, Taylor Nelson and Ariel Smith; and Katie Crane, Loman.

Students named to U OF M Crookston dean's list

Area students were named to the spring semester 2014 dean's list at the University of Minnesota Crookston.

To qualify for a place on the dean's list, students must complete 12 or more letter-graded (A-F) credits while attaining a 3.66 grade point average.

International Falls students included James Aasen and Bonita Ysen, and from Littlefork, Melissa Burmeister.

Locals among U of M Crookston grads

Local students were among 2014 spring semester graduates of the University of Minnesota Crookston.

Rachel Crawford, of Littlefork, earned a bachelor of science in equine science; and Andrea Grecco, of International Falls, earned a bachelor of science in marketing.

Reva Renollet receives scholarship

Reva Renollet, of International Falls, has been awarded a scholarship from the Fergus Area College Foundation to attend the Fergus Falls campus of Minnesota State Community and Technical College in fall 2014.

Student awards are determined in a competitive process and based on academic achievement and contribution to their education community.

Renollet will be publicly recognized for this award at the annual Scholarship Reception held on the Fergus Falls campus in November.

Locals named to UND president's roll of honor

The University of North Dakota has released its 2014 spring semester president's roll of honor.

To qualify for the president's roll of honor, a student must have an overall cumulative grade point average of 3.80 or higher. The student must also have earned a minimum of 30 semester hours and have completed a minimum of 12 hours at the close of the semester, eight of which must be for traditional letter grades.

Taylor Nelson, International Falls, and Katie Crane, Loman, were named to the roll of honor.

ABOUT LOCAL FOLKS

Woods takes part in mission training

Acting director of the Army National Guard, Maj. Gen. Judd H. Lyons, traveled June 20 to the Mission Training Complex at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., to visit and recognize junior soldiers training during the largest Warfighter exercise to date in Army history.

"I'm really proud of the soldiers here," said Lyons. "Seeing them learn lessons on how we operate is really exciting."

Mission Training Complex has hosted two Warfighter exercises back-to-back this summer. More than 4,000 soldiers and airmen have traveled to Fort Leavenworth to take part or assist in training.

"This is a fantastic example of a multi-component approach to training," Lyons said.
