The Ranier barrel train made an appearance at Ranier Daze, and towed youngsters throughout the town.

Minnesota Department of Natural Resources Forestry employee Keith Flood educates a youngster about the outdoors. Flood and fellow employee Kirby Osvald were at Ranier Daze to celebrate Smokey Bear's 70th birthday, which was Saturday.

Silent Run Adventures brought its furry, four-legged friends for a unique attraction in the parade.

In Loving Memory of our Mother, Grandma and Wife, Sherry Ann Rissanen who passed away August 13, 2011

It's been 3 years... hard to believe! But time marches on...

Looking through pictures, this one made me smile!! Although much has changed... your granddaughter's are growing up, you would be proud. All are beautiful with their own unique personalities; we see a piece of Gramma Sherry in each of them. What hasn't changed... are our memories of such an amazing lady; we miss you each day Momma, but we're at peace knowing that you're home.

Love you so much!

Steve, Nikki, Andy, Matt, Beth, Abby, Tessa, Aiden, Elli & Lainey
