PRESS RELEASE

RE: Brian Sill v. Town of Ninety Six, et al; Amanda Seymour v. Town of Ninety Six, et al.

I represent Brian Sill and Amanda Seymour (a.k.a. Amanda Sill) in connection with their lawsuits against the Town of Ninety Six, Mayor Gregg Brown, and Jimmie Brown. The Sills have been the subject of harassment by Mayor Brown, who has used both his official office and personal capacity to conduct a smear campaign involving false and defamatory statements and stalking. Mayor Brown's conduct extended to attacks on their employment, resulting in Brian Sill's wrongful termination as a police officer and the denial of wages and benefits owed to Amanda Sill as acting town clerk. Mayor Brown's conduct has violated Brian and Amanda Sills' rights and resulted in financial, mental, and emotional harm. I intend to pursue these claims to the fullest extent of the law.

Anyone with additional information is encouraged to contact our firm.
