Your Birthday

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22, 2026

By Eugenia Last

Happy Birthday: Pay attention to details, rules and regulations. Having everything in its place will put your mind at ease as you move forward this year. There is too much at stake to make a mistake. Look at the big picture, and follow the dots until you have exhausted every scenario. You have plenty to gain that will lead to lifestyle improvements and your overall happiness. Breathe deep, and let the journey begin.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Speak your mind when dealing with professionals or financial matters, but don't jeopardize your position or reputation over something negligible. Use your insight and tact to navigate your way forward.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Live up to your promises, finish what you start and hide out at home. What you do to ease your mind and soothe your soul will work wonders for you mentally, physically and emotionally.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Traveling, learning and communicating are at an all-time high. Get involved in events or activities that will broaden your awareness and bring you in touch with people who are an asset in your pursuits.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Give it your best shot. No matter what you take on, being precise, well informed and captivating will pay off. Reach out to those in higher positions.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Money matters require attention. Don't bank on a promise that is yet to become a reality. Moving forward with reserve will leave you open to more choices and less stress.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — Use willpower when dealing with financial and health matters. Stick to a budget, exercise and eat properly. Don't follow the crowd or sign up for events that pose a risk or lead to temptation.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Pay attention to spending habits. Use your imagination and discipline when it comes to investments, lifestyle and managing your overhead. Learning something you can turn into a side business will keep you busy.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Hold your thoughts, be secretive and be observant. Listen to what others want, and set standards and boundaries before you engage in partnerships. Charm will help you in negotiations.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — Emotions will surface. Choose your words carefully, and navigate your way through sticky situations with finesse and honesty. Factual accounts will be appreciated.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Pay attention when dealing with colleagues or professional transactions that can influence your position. You stand to prosper if you attend networking functions that allow you to interact on a broader platform.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Dissipate any hostility that tries to grow. An overly dramatic approach will cause grief. Say little, show interest and tally up how you feel about what's transpiring in a calm and stately manner.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Sit tight, and refuse to let anyone pressure you into something you aren't ready for. Concentrate on yourself and what you want to do next. A premature move will cost you.

By Phillip Alder

WE HAVE ONE FIT; DO WE HAVE ANOTHER?

We have been looking at deciding between two possible trump suits. Of course, to have this quandary, two suits usually have to be bid and raised. And in this direction, if a fit is found and one player has a two-suiter, he often should show his second suit, especially in a competitive auction.

For example, look at today's deal. Both South and West can help their partner's high-level bidding decision.

After South opens one spade, West passes, North raises to two spades, and East overcalls three clubs, what should South do?

If a jump to four spades would silence the opponents, that would be a sensible choice (although it is an overbid). But what if West competes with five clubs? Should North-South let them stew or go on to five spades? Neither player knows. However, if South rebids three diamonds, showing his second suit, North will be aware of the double fit and can happily bid on at the five-level.

And, yes, West can also make a good bid. Over South's three-diamond rebid, West should advance with three hearts. This cannot just be advertising a long heart suit and sufficient values to compete at the three-level, because West did not intervene on the first round. This bid shows heart length and club support (although admittedly not necessarily as good as queen-fourth).

Now look at the full deal. You will see that five clubs is unbeatable for plus 600. But five spades doubled goes down only two, minus 500.

When you have a double fit, it is usually best to declare, especially with the minority of the high-card points.
