Your Birthday

TUESDAY, JUNE 23, 2026
 By Eugenia Last

HAPPY BIRTHDAY: Be precise to eliminate confusion. Don't be afraid to take a unique approach when putting yourself together. A stylish look will draw attention and attract people who strive to look and feel their best.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Question everything. Misinformation is likely if you aren't diligent about the facts and figures of any situation that crops up. Taking a risk that can affect your status quo can put you in a vulnerable position.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Put your energy to work for you. Don't waste time on dead-end projects, users and situations that don't concern you or help you reach your objective. Pour your heart and soul into what's feasible.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Easy does it; don't try to buy love or favors. Honesty is the best policy. Say what's on your mind, and pursue your goals without putting your health, wealth or reputation in jeopardy.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Choose to observe and estimate your next move. Think about the possibilities, and follow the dots until you get a clear picture of what's at stake. Refuse to let someone get away with empty promises.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — An open discussion will reveal where you stand with someone and what you can do to make things better. Put your energy into understanding and changing what is causing disruptions.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Spend more time at home or with loved ones. Surrounding yourself with the right people will help build confidence. A change to how you earn your living will boost your lifestyle.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Completion will help dodge criticism. Oversee your plans, do what you say and look for opportunities to match and mirror those you respect and love most. Put your energy where it counts.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Don't settle for less. If change is what you want, make it happen. Put together a routine that is focused on how you look and feel about yourself. Exercise.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — Gather your thoughts. You may not relish change, but if an opportunity comes up that requires you to be resourceful and explore possibilities you haven't considered in the past, push forward with enthusiasm.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Use your superpowers and diligence to win over those who show skepticism. A prudent, disciplined approach to getting what you want will pay off and change how you move forward professionally or financially.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Build your strength carefully. Whether it's physical improvements, mental growth or both you want to harness, having a routine and plan in place will help you avoid unnecessary setbacks.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — Listen, elaborate and consider what you can do without. Decluttering your life mentally and physically will help you put things in perspective and encourage you to clear a path that leads to a simpler lifestyle.

HE ALLEGED NINE, SO HUNTED FOR NINE

Earl Wilson, a journalist who wrote a nationally syndicated newspaper column called "It Happened Last Night," said, "A baseball game is simply a nervous breakdown divided into nine innings."

Three no-trump is simply a nervous breakdown divided into nine tricks. Well, what should South do in this deal after West leads the heart two in answer to his partner's overcall, and South takes East's queen with his king (or ace)?

After East's one-heart intervention, South had two choices: a takeout double (if North would have read it as such!) or a natural two-no-trump rebid, showing a balanced hand with 18, 19 or a poor 20 points and hearts well held. Since North could have still looked for a 4-4 spade fit at the three-level, South made the same rebid that he would have produced if East had remained silent.

South starts with only five top tricks: two spades, two hearts and one club. Since the club finesse is probably losing, declarer should try to add four diamond tricks to bring his total up to nine.

It looks so easy to lead the diamond queen or jack at trick two, but with this layout, that costs the contract. East wins the trick and establishes his hearts. When diamonds break badly and the club finesse is losing, South cannot recover.

As a small safety play, declarer should cross to dummy's spade king, then lead a low diamond toward his hand. Here, the ace appears, collecting only low cards, and the contract is safe. However, if the ace does not appear, South wins the trick and continues the suit, hoping for a 3-2 break.
