ASTROGRAPH

Your Birthday
THURSDAY, MARCH 26, 2026
 By Eugenia Last

Keep your thoughts, intentions and reactions to yourself. Bring about positive lifestyle changes that leave you feeling good about who you are. Be honest with yourself and with loved ones to avoid emotional interference and setbacks. Strive for optimism, fair play and productivity.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Too much of anything will hold you back. Dive deep into your mind and apply more thought and energy to making your home and close relationships better.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Mental stimulation will set the wheels in motion and help you navigate your way forward with precision. Look for grants, incentives and courses that can help you expand your interests.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — Get the facts firsthand. Work to make a difference. Whether you focus on your needs or reach out to help others, the process will be uplifting and will open doors that lead to insight.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Avoid letting negativity and criticism set in. Look for the good in everyone and everything, and you'll attract the right people. Share your intentions and speak from the heart, and opportunity will prevail.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Whatever you do next, weigh the pros and cons before getting involved in situations that could be hard to extricate yourself from. Protect your reputation and stick to the facts.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

— Reach out, make suggestions and participate in events and activities that address issues of concern. Don't let your enthusiasm lead you to overextend yourself physically or financially.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — The people and places that attract you will not be conducive to you best interests. Listen carefully and refrain from offering personal information.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Set yourself up for success. Trust and believe in your abilities and reach out to people who are heading in the same direction. Work-related events will change your perception of someone interesting.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Take note of what others do or say, but don't follow the herd. Focus more on what makes you happy and choose a lifestyle that allows you to fulfill your heart's desires.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Be careful what you share and sign up for and who you trust to look out for your interests. When opportunity knocks — and it will — open the door.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Apply your energy and attention to how you handle your finances. A change at home or to your lifestyle that encourages you to start a home business or sell off items you no longer use will boost your morale.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — Do something you enjoy or investigate something that intrigues you and the outcome will be enlightening. Don't hesitate to hone your skills; practice makes perfect, and perfection attracts those as enthusiastic as you.

A WAY TO RETAIN TRUMP CONTROL

Sylvester Stallone said, "Success is usually the culmination of controlling failure."

That does not apply to this deal, where declarer needs to retain trump control for success, not failure.

West leads the diamond ace against six hearts. How should South continue?

The auction might have gone several ways. North chose to show both of his suits (three clubs was game-forcing), then jumped to five hearts to try to highlight his diamond void and ask for good trumps. South's three-diamond cue-bid asked his partner to bid three no-trump with a diamond stopper. Then, over three spades, he gave preference to clubs. If North had now bid six clubs, he would have made that slam easily, taking three spades, three hearts and six clubs. Also, North could have deduced that South held strong hearts when he did not bid three no-trump.

Declarer must resist the temptation of an overtrick. If hearts are breaking 3-2, South can take 16(!) tricks: three spades, five hearts, six clubs and two diamond ruffs in the dummy. But if South ruffs the opening lead on the board and tries to draw trumps by cashing two top hearts immediately, he will fail.

Instead, declarer should lead a trump from the board at trick two and play low from his hand. In that way, he retains a heart in the dummy to ruff another diamond, and he can then safely draw trumps before running the clubs.

Finally, note that if West had led his singleton spade, South probably would have failed. He would have needed mirrors to get home. The curious can work it out.
