ASTROGRAPH

Your Birthday
WEDNESDAY, MAY 8, 2024
By Eugenia Last

Put your logical mind to work and make things happen. Step into the spotlight, share your thoughts and plans and find out who is ready to support your actions. It's time to lead the way and make yourself heard. You can make a difference. Personal changes and self-improvement are featured.
TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Reaching out to reliable will pay off. Explore how you can use your attributes to enhance a project. Focus on something that requires physical agility, strength and courage.
GEMINI (May 21-June 22) — Keep an open mind, but when it's time to make a move, do so for the right reason. Following someone else's dream isn't going to satisfy your needs. Take time to figure out what makes you happy.
CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Get involved in something that makes you feel good about yourself. Creative thinking will help you decide how you can make a difference. What you discover about yourself will build confidence.
LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Watch your step when dealing with professional, legal or partnership issues. Letting your emotions take charge could damage your reputation. Pay attention to detail and choose your words carefully.
VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Do what excites you, follow your heart and connect with someone from your past. Sign up for an adventure or learn something to help you raise your profile or earning potential.
LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Don't stop short of achieving your goals. Look for a way to turn something you enjoy doing into a lucrative pastime. A partnership that can help you advance looks promising.
SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — You'll gravitate toward people with an unusual profession or hobby. Learn all you can, and you'll discover you have a hidden talent. Express your feelings. Romance is in the stars.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Keep busy. The less time you have to spare, the harder it will be for someone to confront you with something you aren't ready to discuss. Sign up for events or activities.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Be observant and helpful, but keep your opinions to yourself. Arguments won't solve problems, but they will distance you from someone you love.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — The changes you initiate will set the stage for opportunities that combine learning, earning and personal freedom. Do your research and make a lifestyle change.
PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — Don't get caught in someone else's dilemma. Distance yourself from drama and focus on what you can do to get ahead. Attending an event, activity or conference will open a window of opportunity.
ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Pay attention and do your best. How you handle matters will influence your success and how others view you. Don't hesitate to voice your opinion, ask questions and listen to responses.

PLAY TO THE STRENGTH OF YOUR TRUMP SUIT
Oscar Robertson, a 12-time All-Star basketball player, said, "Some players are more physical than others; some play with more finesse. Some are just really great all-around players."
Some bridge players are more analytical than others; some rely more on table feel. You must play to your strength.
In this deal, though, it is the strength of the spade suit that is important.
How should South plan the play in six spades after West leads the club queen to dummy's king?
First, North makes a Jacoby Forcing Raise. When South indicates a minimum with no singleton or void, North wheels out Roman Key Card Blackwood. South's five-diamond reply shows three key cards (three aces, or two aces and the trump king). Five hearts asks for the trump queen, five spades denying that card or a sixth spade. (In RKCB, if the replier knows of at least a 10-card fit, he should say he has the trump queen even when he does not. Ten trumps, including the ace and king, will usually play for no losers. And North should have signed off in six no-trump, but that wasn't allowed, because this week we are handling trump suits.)
South can afford one spade loser but not two. There is a perfect safety-play. He should lead a low spade from the dummy, not cash the ace.
Here, East discards, so declarer can either win with his king and play back toward the dummy or, perhaps easier, put in his jack, later finessing dummy's nine.
If East follows low on the first spade, South finesses his jack and is safe.
