ASTROGRAPH

Your
Birthday

THURSDAY,
NOVEMBER 6, 2025

By Eugenia Last

Use your imagination to map out a path that allows you the freedom to explore what truly excites you. Walk the tightrope with optimism and caution.
Pay attention, and you'll gain ground, be grateful and soothe your soul. Put your energy into positive gestures, and that's what you'll receive in return.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — You'll hold your own and do your best if you trust and believe in yourself. Opportunities will flourish if you are straightforward and engage in open communication with people who need your services.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Focus on home improvements, comfort and convenience. Channeling your energy into something constructive will be uplifting and, over time, lucrative.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan.
19) — Harness your power by networking, socializing and gaining insight into the latest trends in your field of expertise. Choose your destination carefully, and protect yourself against illness or injury.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb.
19) — Don't rush; account for every move, transaction and detail to ensure no one takes advantage of you. You can't buy love, but you can earn it through your actions.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — Listen, and, when in doubt, don't be afraid to say no. You have plenty to gain if you are cognizant of the facts and what's unfolding. Question offers that are too good to be true.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Negotiating contracts and dealing with authority figures, government agencies and institutions are all favored. Investments and financial gains are prevalent, but so is excessive behavior and taking on too much.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Negotiations look promising.
Don't be afraid to ask for what you want. Trust your instincts, stick to the facts and give your best performance. Don't make unrealistic promises; the truth will pay off.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — Change is bound to excite you. Don't give away too much when you can easily get what you want if you play to win.
Challenge the unknown, but be ready to adapt when necessary.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Be creative, think outside the box and look for high-volume outlets for what you can offer. Don't fold under pressure.
Know your worth, and accept nothing less. Proceed with confidence.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Participation is key today. What you see, experience and learn will point you in an inviting direction. It's time to shed what's no longer propelling you forward and replace it with something new and exciting.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Be careful not to share too much personal information. Time is on your side, and the wisdom you gain will enhance your ability to make wise choices. Haste makes waste, while patience paves the way.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23)
— Leave your cards at home.
Temptation to spend on things you don't need will lead to regret. Focus on communicating, learning and updating your skills. Offer perfection.

IF DECLARER STUMBLES,
MAKE HIM FALL

Winston Churchill said, "Men occasionally stumble over the truth, but most pick themselves up and hurry off as if nothing had happened."
When a declarer stumbles, making a mistake, it is the job of the defenders to make sure that he falls, unable to pick himself up and still make his contract.
In today's deal, which, yes, bears a remarkable resemblance to yesterday's, South ended in four spades. And when it was originally played, two errors were made, which balanced each other out. West led the diamond king (under which East accurately dropped the jack to show the 10 as well). South ducked, took the next diamond with his ace, drew two rounds of trumps ending on the board, played a heart to his ace, and led a second heart. When West played the queen, declarer ducked in the dummy. Now West cashed the club ace to stop an overtrick.

What were the two mistakes?
In the modern style, North responded three spades, showing a weak hand with four-card spade support. With a game-invitational hand, North would have cue-bid three clubs. This style allows responder to bid either constructively or obstruc-tively.
Now to the errors. First, as we saw yesterday, when South led a low heart from the board at trick five, he should have put in his 10. East would have been kept off the lead.
Second, when South won with his heart ace, West should have realized that he needed to get his partner on play for a club lead through South. West should have sacrificed his heart queen under South's ace. Then South would have fallen on his face.
