Motivation is the key this year. If you lose interest, you may be heading down the wrong path. Question your desire and need before signing up for something. Trust your instincts, and forge ahead with a smile, a plan and a purpose. Life is short; make every moment count.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — It's your choice; follow your heart and satisfy your soul. Strive for perfection and engage in what's real, tangible and within your budget. Walk away from drama and indulgent behavior.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Speak up; share your thoughts, emotions and intentions with someone special. Put your strengths on display, and don't hesitate to lead the way. A partnership shows promise.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Don't count on anyone but yourself. If you want to change, it's up to you to put your goals into practice. Trust your instincts and turn your desire into a lucrative affair. Let your actions be your voice.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Refuse to let what others do or say mislead you. It's up to you to manifest opportunities and complete missions that can effectively showcase what you have to offer.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Exhaust your creative imagination, and you'll come up with a plan that surpasses your expectations. Connect with people who appreciate what you do and can help further your interests.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — You'll need an outlet for your thoughts. Attend an event that promotes a platform and encourages conversations that can transform how you move forward. A little flirting will go a long way and could have long-term effects.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Be honest with yourself. It's easy to conjure up scenarios that can lead to emotional mayhem. Engaging in a creative project or spending time with someone close to you is encouraged.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Make room to accommodate something or someone who matters to you. A kind gesture will help build strong ties. Making some home improvements or hosting an event will put you in the spotlight.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — You'll engage everyone around you with your effervescent personality, constant activity and diverse way of dealing with people and situations. Reach out to someone from your past and catch up.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Your unique input and thoughtfulness will prompt those you encounter to contribute interesting alternatives. Don't hesitate to commit if you feel strongly about someone or something.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — An open mind will help you understand the reactions of others. Charm and positive affirmation will help you navigate your way past any obstacles in your path.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Participate in something that resonates with you, and you'll make connections with people who share your beliefs. Move forward with an open heart and mind and share what you have to offer.

Rely on your intuition and instincts to make your way this year. Trust in your ability to utilize your skills, knowledge and attributes to achieve the lifestyle you desire. Make your dream come true. Live, love, laugh.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Take a chance, put your best foot forward and dazzle whoever you pitch to with your enthusiasm. Paint your vision with color and possibilities, but don't promise the impossible.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Select your words wisely. Anger or a pushy attitude will not yield the results you are seeking. Discipline, networking and showcasing your skills and expertise will pave the way to success.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — More money is within reach if you are diligent and embrace what you do best. Love, commitment and awareness are on the rise, helping you exceed your expectations.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Check your information for validity before passing information along. Protect your reputation and focus on what's possible. Avoid taking risks that could lead to illness or injury.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Put everything you encounter in perspective. Take your time and react accordingly. Jumping to conclusions will end up costing you your time, money or reputation.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — Get creative; embrace life and use your intelligence to turn your attributes into a lucrative endeavor. It's time to pursue your dream instead of just living in your imagination.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Think outside the box. Surround yourself with people who challenge you to think and strive to utilize your talents to enrich your life. Be the force that leads to peace of mind and happiness.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — You may resist change, but you should rethink your hesitation. Opportunity knocks, and it's up to you to take a chance if it will improve your life. Thought followed by action is the best route forward.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — If you crave change, make it happen. Look around, and you'll discover what you need to move ahead. It's a good day to network, socialize and expand your interests and circle of friends.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Use your strengths to convince others to trust and believe in you. Stop hiding out when you should get out and fraternize with people who can help you.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Keep your opinions to yourself. Someone will use your words and vulnerabilities against you. Don't let anger set in when it's better to work toward becoming who you want to be.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Educate yourself. Thoughts followed by actions will encourage growth and sustainability. Walk away from unpredictable situations. Keep life simple and affordable.

IF PENALIZING, LEAD ACCURATELY

The bridge played in a pair tournament can be somewhat artificial. It is no longer just trying to make or break a contract, but it is also working to score better than the other players with your cards. This can result in making close penalty doubles, especially when the opponents are vulnerable, or taking risks for overtricks.

This deal was originally played a few years ago. After West opened one spade and East responded one no-trump, South thought about a two-spade Michaels Cue-Bid, showing at least 5-5 in hearts and a minor. But that would have forced his side to the three-level, and he had a sixth heart. So he reasonably overcalled two hearts. When West doubled, though, South sensed that he was in a bad contract. (This would have gone down two or three, minus 500 or 800.) So South ran to three clubs. Then East, who had two wonderful aces, decided to try for the magic plus 200 on a partscore deal.

However, it is all right making sharp penalty doubles; you had also better know what to lead. Which card should West select?

There is an excellent guideline here. If your side has the balance of high-card power, the opponents will be trying to score tricks with their trumps. So the more rounds you can extract, the better. The only winning lead is a trump.

Suppose South takes it in his hand and plays his spade. West wins and shifts to a low diamond to give his partner the lead for another round of trumps. In theory, nothing else works.

DO NOT WASTE "USELESS" ASSETS

Harold Wilson, who was the British prime minister for two separate terms, said, "I believe the greatest asset a head of state can have is the ability to get a good night's sleep."

It does not pay to be sleepy at the bridge table, which is why many players consume caffeine drinks. Today's deal, though, is about declarer making the most of his assets, the cards.

South is in four hearts. West leads a low spade. How should declarer proceed?

North gets three points for his singleton, so it is easily worth three hearts. (His hand also has eight losers.)

The North hand has few assets, but it is important to make the most of them. South must not call for dummy's spade king at trick one. It is so unlikely that West is underleading the ace. And, here, if East does take the first trick with his ace over dummy's king, declarer will lose two spades, one heart and one diamond.

Instead, let dummy play low. After East wins the first trick with his 10, what does he do next?

If East cashes the spade ace, declarer will discard his diamond loser on the spade king, ruff his club three on the board, and lose only two spades and one heart. Suppose East does not take his ace, shifting to a club. Then declarer wins in his hand; draws one round of trumps; cashes his two top clubs, sluffing dummy's remaining spades; and, to get communication between the two hands, plays two rounds of diamonds. Whatever happens now, South can draw a second round of trumps, ruff his last spade on the board, ruff a diamond in his hand, and ruff the club three to get home.
