Your Birthday
FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 2026
 By Eugenia Last

Happy Birthday: You're in a better position than you realize. Keep your emotions to yourself. Choose words that are bold, direct and factual, and you will cut through any negativity that comes your way. The cleaner and clearer your message and actions, the quicker the results.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — Put your energy where it counts, and forge ahead. Domestic improvements require attention to avoid emotional interference. Choose your battles wisely. Embrace what's yours to discover.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Be realistic about what you can and cannot do before you make promises. Being precise and finding out what others want from you will help you negotiate your way forward.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Let your imagination run wild, and you'll discover something about yourself and your capabilities that will point you in an interesting direction. A person you encounter today will play a role in helping you shape what's to come.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — An unexpected turn of events will lead to an emotional challenge. Don't act in haste. Size up situations, consider options and put your energy into taking care of your responsibilities first.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Keep a close watch over your investments, possessions and reputation. Not everyone will be on Team Libra. Hold your cards close to your chest, and fact-check every piece of information that comes your way.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

— Staying power, along with vision and being able to reach your goals, will lead to satisfaction and gratitude. Look for unique outlets to disperse anxiety and anger.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — A change is heading your way that may not be to your liking, but hindsight will make you think otherwise once the dust settles. Go with the flow, stick close to home and protect what matters most to you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Search for opportunities, and speak passionately about how you feel, what you care about most and how you intend to proceed. Refuse to let your emotions lead to financial or personal loss.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Shift your attention to what's necessary before you make a move. Getting things right the first time is essential if you want to make the most of a volatile situation.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — Conversations with those with common goals will offer insight into how you can expand your interests and create a sustainable lifestyle that satisfies your needs and intellectual growth.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Take advantage of an opportunity to mingle with industry people who can help you further your professional journey or explore the possibilities of using your skills to generate extra income.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Persistence and good ideas will get you where you want to go, but not without emotional issues tagging along. Separate personal and professional dealings. Know your target.

Your Birthday
SATURDAY, JUNE 20, 2026
 By Eugenia Last

Happy Birthday: Change is twofold, and anticipation is necessary. Although situations will not go according to plan, knowing where you belong and can have the greatest impact will grant you passage into something more wonderful than you can imagine.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — Breathe, relax, separate yourself from drama and do what makes you feel comfortable. Distance yourself from those who play mind games or try to take advantage of your generosity.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Getting money, approving contracts and making your way forward will require patience and precision to ensure you avoid interference. Verify the information you receive.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Learn, and gain experience by doing. Volunteer or take on responsibilities that will educate others and help you head in an interesting direction. A physical change will enhance your persona.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — You'll have plenty of emotional energy to gather momentum and pursue your dreams if you don't let your overthinking spin out of control, creating havoc and trouble at a personal level.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Go where the action is, and do something that elates you. Take control of your life and your happiness by following your heart and letting go of what no longer serves you.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Consider your objective, and look at the broad scope of what you are dealing with. Engage in discussions that can help you manage your responsibilities. Having a plan in place is half the battle.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Concentrate on home, your personal responsibilities and what you can do to increase your income. Look inward, and ignore those trying to lead you astray or use emotional blackmail to take advantage of your skills.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Find your bliss, but don't stretch the truth or take on more than you can handle. Be vocal; let others know how you feel and what you want, and find out what they want in return.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Push for what you want. Come up with solutions, and present what you have to offer with a friendly demeanor, and you'll make progress. Put a routine together that helps you get back to basics.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — Honesty and integrity are essential when trying to sort out differences. Take a conversation to the next level. Speak your mind, and generate a dialogue that will help you understand the needs of others.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Creativity and discipline go together. Venture out and participate in something that excites you. You are overdue for a change of scenery and direction. Consider what makes you feel good about who you are.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Implementing an efficient, convenient and comfortable space to relax and to execute your plans will offer peace of mind and insight into the possibilities. Don't take a risk.

WORK OUT DECLARER'S OPTIMUM STRATEGY

Jack Youngblood, a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame who played for the Los Angeles Rams for 14 years, said, "I visualize things in my mind before I have to do them. It is like having a mental workshop."

The most skillful bridge players can get inside the minds of their opponents. They can visualize exactly what that player would do from various holdings.

Today's deal is an example of this. South is in three no-trump. West leads the heart three and declarer calls for dummy's five. What should East do?

The auction was straightforward. South did not like to open one no-trump without a heart stopper, but the bid gave as accurate a description of his hand as possible. Yes, he might have opened one diamond, planning to rebid one spade over a one-heart response, but partner would have had a much fuzzier picture of South's hand. The only makable game here is four spades, which is tough to reach.

Let's return to East's predicament. If South has ace-doubleton of hearts, East must put in his 10, finessing against partner (this week's theme). But if South has jack-doubleton, East must win with his king. Which is correct?

Get into South's mind. If he had ace-doubleton, which heart would he have played from the board?

Right — the queen. He would have hoped the opening lead was away from the king and tried to take a second heart trick. When he does not do that, he cannot have the heart ace. So East should confidently put up his king, expecting to win the trick. And five heart tricks later, the contract is down.

IS THIS FINESSE REALLY POINTLESS?

Michio Kaku, a professor of theoretical physics, made this valid point: "It's pointless to have a nice clean desk, because it means you're not doing anything."

Who could disagree with that? There are some plays that seem pointless, but upon closer inspection prove that you are doing something vital. In this deal, the "pointless" play occurs at trick one.

South is in four hearts. West leads the spade two. After declarer plays low from the dummy, why does it make a difference whether East plays his 10 or king?

Nowadays many Wests would have made a takeout double over one heart. I am still not convinced it is a good idea with a relatively weak 4-3-3-3. South's jump to four hearts was a slight overbid with such a balanced hand, but whenever you smell a game, bid that game.

If East plays the spade king at trick one, it does not cost the defense a spade trick, but declarer can then make his contract. He wins with his ace and drives out the heart ace. West takes his ace and cashes the spade queen, but even if he leads another spade, South ruffs in the dummy, plays off his two top clubs, draws trumps ending on the board, and runs the clubs.

Now let East "finesse against his partner" by putting in the spade 10 at trick one. Then West, when he gets in with his heart ace, can lead another low spade. East can take the trick and shift to a diamond, giving the defenders one spade, one heart and two diamonds.

The finesse against partner retains an entry card for East.
