ASTROGRAPH

Your Birthday

FRIDAY,
SEPTEMBER 4, 2026

By Eugenia Last

Happy Birthday: Put emotions aside, and rely on practicality to lead you in the right direction. Don't be tempted to follow others when you are the one paying attention to detail. Choose to socialize with those who are happy doing things that are more creative and less expensive. Happiness is finding your bliss and being with the right people.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Protect your reputation, and abide by the rules. Surround yourself with people who share your integrity and mindset. Manage your daily routine to reflect good health and overall contentment.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Put yourself first, and satisfy your needs. Discover what makes you happy. Life is about love and learning to become the best version of yourself. Choose progress over repetition. Love yourself first.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Channel your energy; if you let it run wild, you'll pay the price. Choose activities that are safe. The thrill won't be worth the consequences. Drive carefully, and refuse to let anyone enrage you.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — If you spend more time at home and sort through the rubble that's accumulated, you'll breathe easier. Avoid conversations with people touting doom and gloom. Focus on reading.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Put some time and effort into getting your life and your legal, financial and health issues in order. Putting things off will add to your stress and hinder your relationships with the ones you love.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Embrace change; a new experience will revive your spirit and give you hope for a brighter future. Test the waters, and explore work possibilities that challenge and stimulate your imagination.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — It's one step forward and two steps back. Caution is necessary when dealing with your lifestyle and relationships. Try to immerse yourself in activities or events that captivate your mind.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Take a moment to consider your options. Acting in haste will turn sour, leaving you in an awkward position. Truth and compassion will help you find your way to a better place.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Take more time to recognize your strengths and to put them to work for you. Refuse to let your emotions cost you mentally or financially. Pay attention to what others are experiencing.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — Your mind is working overtime. Take a moment to adjust your response setting to low, and behold what's happening around you. Change may be your objective, but the wrong move will slow you down.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Consider home improvements that make a difference to your state of mind. Declutter and get rid of subscriptions and things that are costly but offer limited returns. Face your fears head-on.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Fulfill your creative imagination. Dedicate more time to researching and discovering what makes you happy. Reach out to people of interest, and make decisions that suit your lifestyle.

LEAD AFTER LISTENING TO THE AUCTION

Brigham Young said, "Silence may be golden, but can you think of a better way to entertain someone than to listen to him?"
Can you think of a better way to find the best opening lead than to listen to the bidding?
Look at the West hand and the auction in today's diagram. What should West lead against four spades?
When the opponents are cruising toward a game or slam, pay attention. In particular, work out how many points each player has. And sometimes you will also know the distribution of at least one opponent's hand — as in this deal.
North announced five hearts, four clubs and three spades; his hand had 3-5-1-4 (or perhaps 3-5-0-5 or even 3-6-0-4) distribution. He also promised extra strength, usually 15 or 16 high-card points. With a minimum, he would have raised one spade to two spades.

South showed game-invitational values with three-card heart support. Then, when he preferred four spades to four hearts, he indicated five spades.
Given that dummy is very short in diamonds, leading that suit has little appeal. (Yes, it works if East wins the first trick and shifts to a low club.) A trump is too passive. The opponents have bid quite strongly, so it is probably right to lead actively. That means choosing the club jack.
East takes dummy's queen with his ace and returns the suit. Then the defenders can take two clubs, one diamond and one heart for down one.
