Your Birthday

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 2026

By Eugenia Last

Happy Birthday: Size up your situation and consider how you fit into what's developing. You have decisions to make that can change the dynamics of your relationships, reputation and repercussions if you make a poor decision. Your options are changing, and doors will open if you are persistent. It's time to let go of what no longer benefits you and embrace what offers hope for a brighter future.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Stretch your legs. Take a walk in the woods, hug a tree or do whatever it takes to soothe your soul and release anxiety caused by the hustle and bustle going on around you.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Put your emotions and ego aside, and consider your options. Taking on too much or letting someone convince you to do something that isn't in your best interest will leave you at a loss.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Control what happens. Refuse to let anyone make decisions for you. Listen, follow through, fact-check and reject what doesn't suit your needs. Pay attention to how you feel.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Tally up what you spend and owe. Adjust your lifestyle to help lower your overhead. An opportunity to share expenses or to improve your earning potential will put your mind at ease.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — Consider your personal, financial and medical commitments, and adjust your situation to suit your needs. Talk to financial experts, and go through your subscriptions and eliminate what you don't use.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Rethink how you want to use your skills. Don't let your emotions dictate your next move. Focus on fine-tuning your time to guarantee making adjustments that make your life easier.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Jump into the mainstream and promote who you are and what you have to offer. Use your insight, experience and passion to influence those who have something to contribute. Put temptation aside.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — Focus on learning, experimenting and discovering what works best. Interviews, appointments and home improvements will turn out best if you are willing to accept straying from your original plans.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Use your voice to make a difference. Take on those who challenge you, and learn from the experience. How you move through a crowded room will determine what you discover about yourself as well as others.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Spend more on comfort and convenience and less on products that promise the impossible. Monitor emotional spending, and prioritize making your life easier.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) —Keep your personal information and any secrets you harbor to yourself. The less others know about you, the easier it will be to get things done without interference. Pay attention to detail.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Check out what's possible, and don't waste time hesitating over what to do. Time is of the essence, and being responsible for the outcome will give you the boost you need to run the show.

TRICK ONE IS THE CONTRACT'S KEY

Carlos Castaneda, a Peruvian-American author with a doctorate in anthropology who died in 1998, said, "The trick is in what one emphasizes. We either make ourselves miserable, or we make ourselves happy. The amount of work is the same."

For a bridge player, trick one is what often emphasizes whether he ends the deal miserable or happy. The amount of work is not the same, though, because the more effort put in before playing from the dummy at trick one, the more contracts that will be made.

This week, let's look at some deals in which declarer's play at trick one is either critical or lays the foundation for success. In today's layout, what should South do after West leads a low spade against three no-trump?

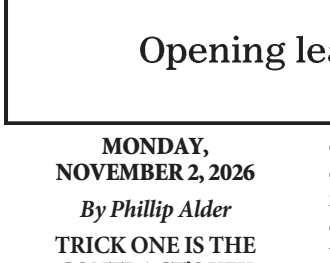

South starts with eight top tricks: one spade (given the opening lead), three hearts, two diamonds and two clubs. The ninth winner can definitely come from clubs. But what is the risk?

If the club finesse loses, maybe the defenders can run the spade suit.

To stop that, declarer must follow the "honor from the shorter side first" dictum. Since there are only two spades on the board, South must put up dummy's king. Here, he wins the trick and can run the club jack to guarantee his contract. Even though that finesse loses, declarer's remaining queen-low in spades is a stopper with West on lead.

Note, though, that if South takes the first trick with his spade queen, when West gets in with his club queen, he cashes the spade ace to squash dummy's king, then takes three more spade tricks to defeat the contract.
