NOVEMBER 5, 2025

By Eugenia Last

Try following your heart and changing your routine to satisfy your soul. Life is about delight, and until you decipher what makes you happy, you'll be in limbo. Make choices that fill your heart with joy and gratitude, and what you generate will extend to those you want to have in your circle. Live, love and laugh. SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Pick your battles wisely and use your time and energy appropriately. Let your actions speak for you and let your intentions lead to victory. Talk with authority and pursue what's purposeful. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Do the dirty work first. Deal with agencies, institutions and authority figures. High energy and discipline will bring about positive change at home and work. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) - Pay attention and nourish what you want to achieve. Set guidelines, boundaries and schedules to achieve your objective. Think ahead, consider others and move forward with a positive attitude.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Keep your thoughts to yourself. Give yourself a chance to digest every aspect of a situation before acting. Pay more attention to self-improvement and personal growth.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Consider your financial position and where your money will have the most significant impact. Attend trade shows or networking events that keep you up to date on the latest technology and trends.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) - Take matters into your own hands and adjust whatever is causing you grief. Finding solutions and taking steps will help you discover what's purposeful.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Ignoring what's bothering you isn't a solution; it's denial. Pay attention and distance yourself from excessive individuals and pastimes that negatively impact your life. GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Be adventuresome and try something new. Replace indulgent behavior with worthwhile goals that result in satisfaction and confidence. Focus your energy where it matters and reap the benefits. CANCER (June 21-July 22) Hit the reset button. It's essential to think before you act if you want to get the highest return. Welcome change and realign your goals with what's new and exciting.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Avoid people applying unnecessary force or pressure. Don't risk your physical well-being or do something that puts you in harm's way. A change that helps you perform better will have a positive impact on your life.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) - Taking a new or different approach to life, love and happiness will help you let go of what's holding you back from making progress. Focus on what flows forward smoothly.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) - Home improvements that make your routines easier or less stressful will help you build momentum and clarity. Follow your heart, prepare for change and release negative influences. COPYRIGHT 2025

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 2025 By Phillip Alder WHAT IS THE LEAD YOU DO NOT WANT?

Alexander Smith, a 19th-century Scottish poet, said, "Everything is sweetened by risk."

Not when you are a declarer! Then, you should aim to make your contract without risk. However, declarer usually faces various dangers. In today's deal, he must work to keep a particular opponent off the lead.

South cruises into four spades. West, who overcalled in clubs, leads the diamond king. After

East signals with the jack, how should declarer plan the play? In the modern style, North responded three spades, showing a weak hand with four-card spade support. With a gameinvitational hand, North would have cue-bid three clubs. This is a good idea because it allows responder to bid both constructively and obstructively.

Declarer starts with nine top tricks (six spades, two hearts and one diamond) and hopes to establish dummy's heart suit. But he is in danger of losing four tricks: one heart, one diamond and two clubs. However, he risks losing those two clubs only if East gains lead.

Pass

South must duck at the first trick -- avoidance play number one. East's careful play of the diamond jack indicates that he also has the 10, a potential entry card.

Then, after taking the second trick with his diamond ace, declarer draws trumps ending on the board and leads a low heart to his 10 — avoidance play number two. West wins with his queen, but cannot do better than cash the club ace to stop an

Note that if South takes the first trick or plays off three rounds of hearts, East gets on lead to push a club through South's king.
