ASTROGRAPH

Your Birthday

THURSDAY,
SEPTEMBER 24, 2026

By Eugenia Last

Happy Birthday: Reconfigure what you want to see happen, and set a plan in place. Don't put others first or put up with interference when it's you who must live with the outcome. Show your strength and discipline, and use your intelligence to devise a plan that's best for you. It may be easier to sit back, but satisfaction and gratitude come from using your skills and intelligence to achieve your goal.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — It's OK to be different. A change will offer lessons that encourage you to replenish your spirit by allowing yourself the freedom to accept who you are and do what makes you happy.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Adjustments that add to your comfort may not be appreciated by everyone, but they will make your life easier. Self-improvement is highly recommended. Relax, enjoy your own company and take care of yourself.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Let your uniqueness lead the way. The changes you initiate at work or at home may not please everyone, but in time, acceptance will manifest. Trust your instincts and explore what's possible.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Distance yourself from negativity and conversations with people who don't share your beliefs, integrity or standards. Focus on how well you do your job, run your life and handle financial matters.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Focus on home improvements, budget and investments. A lifestyle change will help you get back on track and be conscientious about health and emotional well-being.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — If you express your feelings through your gestures, you'll gain insight into who has mutual respect for you. Participate in activities that are useful and geared toward health.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Take a close look at yourself, your relationships and the amount of time you can spare to take care of your needs. Be realistic, shake things up and find that sweet spot.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Set your sights on simplifying your life. Taking on too much will lead to stress and overreacting. Put drama aside, and pay more attention to making memories with the ones you love.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — A change of scenery will prompt you to make changes. Finding an outlet for pent-up energy will give you the confidence necessary to pursue your dreams. Consider a hobby that eases stress.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — A creative outlet will spark your imagination and encourage you to expand and use your talents to make money. Self-improvement projects will help you excel. Update your resume.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Monitor what's happening around you and how you feel physically. Address issues concerning home improvements, medical issues and how committed you are to your lifestyle. Investigate what's available to you.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Reaching out to an old colleague or childhood friend will offer insight into what you can do with your skills and experience. Don't be shy. Love, romance, personal growth or getting a new look are favored.

DEFENSIVE THINKING CAN BE DIFFICULT

Ernest Dimnet, a French priest, writer and lecturer who wrote "The Art of Thinking" and died in 1954, said, "Education is the methodical creation of the habit of thinking."

How true — why didn't we think of that?

When I teach a class, I try to get my students to think like bridge players, not to bid the first thing that comes into their minds or to play the card nearest their thumbs.

This deal from a social game is instructive. What do you think of the auction? What should happen in four hearts after West leads the spade king?

North was right to respond two clubs, Stayman. If South had replied two diamonds, North would have rebid two hearts, showing a weak major two-suiter with no game aspirations. When South bid two hearts, though, North should have passed. And South, with a minimum 15 high-card points, ought to have passed out three hearts.

In four hearts, South probably has to play the trump suit without loss. To do that, he can either cash dummy's ace, playing West for a singleton king, or lead his queen, hoping East has a singleton jack. They are mathematically equal, but leading the queen is better because West might fail to cover with king-doubleton.

However, before that, South won the first trick and returned his second spade. Here, West defended perfectly, winning with his queen and shifting to a club. However, when declarer won with his ace and led the heart queen, West erred by playing low, so the contract made.
