By Eugenia Last

Participation will lead to understanding and insight into what's best for you. The more you interact with people, the easier it will be to recognize motives and assess what is likely to transpire. Change is your way forward, but it also requires you to manipulate situations to make them worthwhile. Trust your feelings, and head in a direction that satisfies your soul.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Hasty choices will backfire, leaving you in a quandary that can cost you if you aren't careful. Ease into situations, mull over information and consider what works best for you before making a move.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Reach out to those you look up to for information with caution. Ask questions and listen carefully, but when it comes time to make a choice, rely on your instincts.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Participating in something you enjoy will help you relax. Distancing yourself from stress will help you gain perspective on what's meaningful to you and how to cope with life's little challenges.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — Stick close to home and engage in something creative. Make positive changes to your routine and revamp your plans to encourage healthy lifestyle choices.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Focus on gaining experience and knowledge. Participate in events that address causes and concerns you are passionate about. Socializing with the wrong people will cost you.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — You are overdue for a change. Consider how you can use your space to help develop new skills or pursue a project that can bring in extra cash. Be compassionate and understanding.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — Don't sit back when interacting with others; it will spark your imagination and get you moving in a new direction. Be a good listener, observer and communicator.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Use your connections wisely and share your ideas only with those you trust. Avoid anyone who tends to dominate or bully. Discuss budgets, shared expenses and domestic matters to avoid financial setbacks.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Engage in activities and conversations that offer insight into what those close to you want to do. Participating in social events and physical activities can connect you to someone special.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — You may desire change, but you are likely to meet with opposition if you move too quickly. Ask an expert, verify information and consider less risky alternatives.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Scout around your neighborhood, ask questions, gather information and make domestic choices that improve your living space or arrangements. Know when to say no and walk away.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Chase knowledge and life experience. What you learn will offer greater awareness of the possibilities. Discipline regarding the use of money will be necessary.

A NEW SUIT
AT THE TWO-LEVEL

After a one-level suit opening and a takeout double, if the responder bids a suit at the one-level, it is natural and forcing (and does not deny 10 points). A non-jump new suit at the two-level is weak.

An example is the North hand in today's diagram. Responder bids two diamonds over West's double. And after East passes, South takes a shot at three no-trump.

West leads his fourth-highest heart and East puts up the 10. How should South proceed?

When in no-trump, always start by counting your top tricks — your immediate winners. Here South has six: two hearts (given the lead), two diamonds and two clubs. If he is going to get three more tricks, he needs to establish dummy's diamonds and get back into the dummy to cash the new winners.

What is declarer's dummy entry?

Right — the heart queen. But that will be an entry only if South can lead twice toward the queen, once to make West take his king and once to win with the queen.

So, declarer's first key play is to win trick one with the heart ace.

Then he should cash the diamond ace and continue with the diamond nine. When West plays low twice, South must overtake with dummy's 10. If East could win the trick, the diamonds would be breaking 3-2 and all would be well. Here, though, when East discards, declarer continues with two more rounds of diamonds. And eventually he will force that dummy entry in hearts to get home.

In case you are wondering, if the responder had had, say, 11 high-card points, not five, he would have had to start with a redouble.
