Your imagination and creativity are on the rise. Let your passions take command and lead you in directions that soothe the soul and excite the mind. Doors will open, and success awaits you, so let go of the past and embrace the future with enthusiasm. It's your turn to shine.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Look for opportunities and take advantage of what you discover. Ask questions and apply information directly to what interests you. Patience, focus and discipline will help you achieve your goal.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Domestic issues will require thought and change. Let your heart choose and your head dictate the most suitable way to move forward. Move forward, do what's best for you and don't look back.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Put your emotional energy into learning, discovery and figuring out what's best for you. Consider how to present who you are, what you can do and how you can benefit others.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Refuse to let insecurity set in or someone's criticism stand in your way. It's time to prop yourself up and to make the adjustments that boost your energy and confidence. You've got plenty to offer.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — Anger, laziness and negativity are the enemies. Engage in social events and carry yourself with poise and a positive attitude. You'll attract attention, support and new relationships. ARIES (March 21-April 19) — A change of plans or direction will encourage you to speak up and participate. The people you connect with will be instrumental in helping you move toward greater opportunity.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Your heart and your head won't be on the same page. Try to channel your energy into self-improvement, learning new skills and taking better care of yourself and your surroundings.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Refuse to let anger or ego stand in your way when an opportunity is apparent. Don't miss out because you can't let go of the past. Embrace new beginnings with a positive attitude.

GOOD GUESSING AND POOR THINKING

Our man A.N. Other continues in good form: "Anybody could get rich if he could guess the exact moment at which a piece of junk becomes an antique."

Any bridge player could get rich if he could work out the exact moment to make an unusual play that is correct.

In this deal, West leads his heart six against three no-trump; jack, king, seven. East returns the heart three, covered by South's four. How should West analyze the position?

North was right to blaze straight into three no-trump. Presumably, he is putting eight winners down in the dummy. He needs only for partner to be able to win a trick before the defenders have taken five. Admittedly, here South rates to have club length because he did not show a major or raise diamonds, and five diamonds might make when three no-trump fails. But do not spend your life looking for that distribution. It will arise only rarely.

If this deal were played in a tournament, almost every declarer would make his contract. West would automatically take the second trick with his heart eight, cash the heart ace, and find himself stuck on lead after taking the fourth trick with his heart 10. South would win the last nine tricks.

The bidding marks South with at most three hearts because he did not respond one heart. So it cannot hurt West to take the second trick with his heart 10. Then after cashing the ace, he can continue with his eight, which East can overtake with his nine to cash the five to defeat the contract.
