Your Birthday

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 2026

By Eugenia Last

Happy Birthday: Slow down, take notes and revise your plans to fit your time, budget and mindset. Too much too fast will turn into a problem, but researching and finding your comfort zone will put your mind at ease and encourage stellar results. Timing is everything this year; refuse to let anyone push you into something you aren't ready to do. Get your facts straight, your paperwork in order and your plan in place.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Relax; time is on your side. Refuse to let someone's enthusiasm trigger you to make a premature decision. Choices tied to your emotions will compromise you financially or physically.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Changes at home that give you greater options to fulfill your dreams will lift your spirits and help you find innovative ways to bring in extra cash or do something that satisfies your soul.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Adjust your plans to fit your budget, and you'll feel good about what unfolds. A position that interests you isn't likely to be as described. Before you sign up for something, ask specific questions.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Build momentum before you press forward. Know what you want and what you are willing to give up. There will always be trade-offs and decisions to make, and looking out for everyone's best interest will help you.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — Change may be your target, but making the right move is more important than doing so instantaneously. Give yourself a break; take time to relax and mull over your options.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Put yourself in the driver's seat, and power up your plans to meet your demands. It's time to venture out, try something new, engage in conversations and find out what's available.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Say what's on your mind. Refuse to let anyone speak for you. Problems at home and when dealing with competitive people will set you back if you give others the upper hand.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — A domestic change favors you. Do your best to clear a space that offers comfort and productivity and makes you feel good about yourself, your life and the direction you are heading.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Reroute your plans, and spend time with people who can offer options that are less taxing financially but offer insight into something that has the potential to be just as engaging.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Getting along with others will give you the advantage. If you listen to what transpires and observe how others react, you'll gain insight into how to appease others to get what matters most to you.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Don't initiate or force change. Bide your time, figure out what you want and need, pay attention to detail and consider your timeline. Networking events will shed light on what's possible.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Don't limit what you can do. If change is something you desire, find a way to satisfy your needs. Discipline and innovative ideas can help you find a means to an end.

YOU HAVE THE POINTS, SO BID GAME

All top bridge players are good at math. But a lot of the sums should not be beyond anyone. Look at today's South hand. Partner opens one club, East passes, South responds one spade, West intervenes with two hearts, North passes, and East passes. What should South do now?

At the table, South, someone who has been successful in his career, passed out two hearts. What was he thinking? As soon as North opened one club, South should have said to himself, "I have 14 points; we are bidding at least game."

South should have made a takeout double. North would have bid two spades, showing three-card support. (With four spades, he would have raised to two spades on round two.) Then South would have jumped to four spades.

How should South plan the play in four spades after West leads the club queen?

One other point in the auction: East should not have passed over two hearts with four trumps and a void. He should have bid (three or) four hearts.

South is faced with losers in each suit. But he will survive just as long as he plays low from the dummy at trick one. Suppose East ruffs (it is stronger defense to discard) and shifts to a heart. (South won't misguess that suit if left to himself.) West wins and gives his partner another ruff — again, declarer must play a low club from the dummy. Say East exits with a heart to dummy's king. Declarer draws trumps, cashes his club king, crosses to dummy with a diamond, and discards his diamond loser on the club ace to get home.
