Your Birthday

FRIDAY, AUGUST 7, 2026

By Eugenia Last

Happy Birthday: Set your plans in motion. Attend functions related to something you find intriguing. Mingle with people who share your interests and concerns, and you'll connect with someone who influences how and when you move forward. If you take the road less traveled, you'll discover talents, skills and attributes you didn't realize you have. Trust your instincts when opportunity collides with hard decisions.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Your strength lies in knowing when and what will give you the upper hand and the opportunity to head in the direction that's best for you. Discipline and originality will outmatch any competition you encounter.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Do your best to avoid unsavory situations that can impact your personal or professional life. Be content with watching what's happening around you without offering your input.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Being receptive will lead to interesting alternatives. Tweak what you hear to suit your situation, and you'll find a perfect fit for something you want to pursue or make your own.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Put up barriers, limitations and boundaries. Protect against temptation and those who are bad influences regarding money, overindulgence and questionable situations.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Gear up and get ready to have some fun. If you engage in activities that stimulate you physically or spiritually, your entertaining attitude will attract attention.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — If you push your intelligence to the max, you'll discover how capable you are of reaching the standards and expectations you hold dear to your heart. Embrace learning.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Rebuilding or hitting the reset button will open a window of opportunity that encourages you to focus on fitness, health, nutrition and your personal happiness.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — If you act in a heartfelt manner and offer a positive response, you'll deny others the chance to gloat or to take advantage of you. Choose kind words, a smile and an intellectual facade.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Be bold, consider what motivates you to be your best and turn an OK day into something spectacular. You've got the go-ahead from the universe to make decisions that can map out your journey forward.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Rethink your strategy before you take on a challenge that can influence your lifestyle or your professional goals. Don't put your reputation on the line for someone else or to prove a point.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — Keep everyone guessing. Don't share too much or give away your secrets. Put your energy into being at your best, and you'll be a magnet for success, love and friendships that can help you get ahead.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Distance yourself from anyone who uses manipulation or pressure tactics to take advantage of you. Let your intelligence and memory guide you in situations that appear unfair or put you in a vulnerable position.

DO YOU HOLD UP WITH TWO STOPPERS?

We have been looking at declarer's plan in no-trump when he has only one stopper in the suit led at trick one. But how does his strategy change when he has two stoppers in that suit?

It depends upon the number of opposing high cards declarer has to drive out before running for home. If he will lose the lead only once, he should take the first trick, give the opponents the trick they are due, and claim. However, if he has two losers to drive out, usually it is right to duck (lose) trick one.

In this example deal, West leads the spade four against three no-trump and East puts up his jack. How should South plan the play?

South starts with only five top tricks: two spades and three diamonds. He can get three winners from clubs, so also needs a heart trick. He has to concede tricks to both rounded-suit aces. The rule recommends ducking the first trick.

Let's assume East returns his second spade. South wins and plays on clubs. East takes his ace, but doesn't have another spade to lead (and if he did, the suit would be 4-3).

Note that if South takes the first trick and leads a club, East wins and returns his second spade, establishing West's suit while West still has an entry in the heart ace. Or, if South plays a high heart at trick two, West wins with his ace and East drops the jack, the top of his sequence when he cannot win the trick. Then West should lead his second heart, which would defeat the contract.

Finally, yes, if East, when given the first trick, shifts to his heart jack at trick two, South has to guess to play low, which is not clear-cut.
