ASTROGRAPH

Your Birthday

WEDNESDAY,
OCTOBER 8, 2025

By Eugenia Last

Choose your battles wisely this year. Refuse to let emotions lead the way when achieving good results requires common sense, patience and attention to detail. Refuse to let ego or jealousy impact how you handle situations, people or lifestyle changes. A clear-cut plan, along with fortitude and determination, will lead to victory.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Look for solitude when dealing with personal matters and how you want to live your life. Refuse to let others dictate what's best for you. It's up to you to maintain peace.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Don't hide out when you should network. To succeed, you must participate. Attend events, make cold calls and share your history, thoughts and experience with other players who share your concerns and interests.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Consider your health and well-being before agreeing to something that may be physically taxing. Clear-cut rules, standards or hours will make a positive difference for you and those you plan to work alongside.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Look at the big picture; consider where your steps lead if you put your energy into combining both domestic and professional needs. Love looks promising.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Look for unique possibilities that resonate with what motivates you as well as those with whom you want to maintain a good relationship. A financial investment or job opportunity looks promising.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — Count your blessings and do whatever it takes to push your journey forward. Engage in activities and events of interest that expand your circle of friends and human contact.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Listen carefully and consider the suggestions and information you receive. You may not like what you hear, but if you turn the information into something positive, it can ultimately become a win-win situation.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Explore your options, feelings, and what and who influences and affects your life. Physical and emotional changes appear promising and help address issues you're struggling with.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — Gather data and base decisions on facts. Don't wait for opportunities to come to you when effort on your part is necessary. Timing is critical if you want to get the best results.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Attend events that combine work and pleasure, and you'll connect with people who interest you personally and professionally. Home improvements can enhance your comfort and convenience.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Put a plan in place before you start sharing your intentions with loved ones or associates. Your charm will only get you so far; a combination of brain and brawn will be impossible to resist.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Sit tight, wait, watch and put together possible options. Preparation will make a difference, so pay attention to detail and have alternatives ready in case any one questions your intentions.

WHEN IT LOOKS BAD, BE AN OPTIMIST

George Jean Nathan, a drama critic and an editor who died in 1958, said, "An optimist is a fellow who believes a housefly is looking for a way to get out."

At the bridge table, players tend to be optimists or pessimists. In this deal, for example, look at the East and North hands. East is defending against four spades. West leads the club jack. What should East do?

In Standard American, South's three-spade rebid shows extra values (usually 15-17 high-card points) and a good six-card suit. It is game-forcing after North's two-over-one response. If you are using two-over-one game-force, then three spades promises a solid suit and sets it as trumps. The responder is asked to control-bid (cue-bid) if interested in a slam. Here, North has a borderline hand. He could justify a four-diamond or four-heart control-bid. But since South has no side first-round control, he would sign off in four spades.

The dummy is depressing. East knows that if declarer needs a diamond finesse, it is working. East can see two club winners. Maybe West has a trump trick (but not if South has shown a solid suit). What other chance is there?

None, apparently.

Well, there is one — West might be void of diamonds. After winning with his club king, East should shift to a diamond.

Here, West ruffs, returns a club to East's ace, and receives another ruff for down one. Houseflies, be gone!

Some players would find this ruff, but only at trick three. They cannot resist immediately cashing available tricks. Take your time and think through the deal.
