DECEMBER 17, 2025

By Eugenia Last

Turn your energy into something spectacular this year. Let creativity take control and inspire you to embrace what you love doing. It's up to you to make choices that push you to seize the moment. Take the path that leads to victory.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Stay on course and stick to the basics, and you'll flawlessly move forward with ease. Knowing your capabilities and doing what you do best will take you far.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — You'll gain insight into something you want to pursue. Ask questions and monitor what's said to ensure you get an honest assessment of situations and the possibilities that exist.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Don't buy into someone else's dream; invest in yourself, your attributes and your future. A change will take you by surprise and encourage you to push forward with enthusiasm.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — Believe what you see, verify what you hear and pursue what excites you. Participate in events that broaden your perspective and encourage you to learn something new.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Choose what you wish to participate in and tally up how much it will cost. Taking care of the expenses that come with the festive season and events in advance will reduce stress and encourage you to relax.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20)

— Take care of an offer that requires your attention before the year ends. Take advantage of an offer you're eligible for. The compensation you receive will have a positive impact on your lifestyle.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — Change can be good if you embrace it wholeheartedly and engage in talks and events that offer a platform to share your thoughts. Think big, act on your own behalf and enjoy the ride.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Look at the big picture when dealing with professional matters and prospects. Setting yourself up for success will put your mind at ease and money in the bank.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Attend events that allow you to show off your skills and expertise. Reconnecting with past associates will open doors to new beginnings. A partnership has potential.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Distance yourself from drama and people trying to involve you in a situation that doesn't include you. Do what's necessary to maintain personal and emotional stability.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Communication is in your best interest. Let your charm lead the way while you share your ideas; you'll get a grasp on what others might expect and want from you.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Focus on personal improvement to boost your confidence and prepare for the upcoming festivities. Someone may try to make you look incompetent by pointing you in the wrong direction.

BASIC DECLARER PLAY
GETS A TUNE-UP

If you have not been playing the game long and would like to check that you have basic declarer play down pat, buy “Declarer Play at Bridge: A Quiz-book” by Barbara Seagram and David Bird (Master Point Press).

The book starts with suit contracts. There are four pages of basic instruction, then 40 quiz questions in which the reader is shown the dummy and declarer's hand (“single dummy,” as it is called) and asked to choose a line of play. Each answer also includes a useful point to remember.

Next, there are six pages about no-trump contracts, followed by 20 single-dummy problems. There are fewer examples because no-trump contracts are much less complicated than suit contracts.

In this example from the book, how should South play in six hearts? West leads the spade jack.

Yes, South's jump to slam is a tad optimistic. But the play's the thing.

South has two losers: one diamond and one club. He has only 11 winners: two spades, six hearts, two diamonds and one club. He must establish dummy's club suit. But if it is splitting 4-2, that will require three dummy entries. Luckily, there are three: the heart king, heart 10 and diamond king.

After taking the first trick, cash the club ace and play another club. Suppose East wins and shifts to the diamond queen. South wins with his ace, cashes the heart ace, plays a diamond to dummy's 10, ruffs a club, leads a heart to the king, ruffs another club, plays a diamond to dummy's king, and happily discards a minor-suit loser on the club jack, which is now a winner.
