ASTROGRAPH ☀️🌙🌠

Your Birthday
TUESDAY, APRIL 7, 2026
By Eugenia Last
 Be open to suggestions, learning and trying something new. The more you explore and implement new ideas and skills, the more you will flourish. The more time and energy you put toward growth, the easier it becomes to believe in who you are. Curb bad habits.
ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Start decluttering, pay it forward and lower your overhead. A heart-to-heart talk will help set new living standards that offer less stress. Avoid crowded venues and taking on physical tasks that are unrealistic.
TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Look for the good in everyone and everything. Gratitude is your ticket forward. Master the art of peace over chaos, and the universe will align with what you are trying to achieve.
GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — It's what you do that matters. Emotional blackmail, stretching the truth and blaming others for your shortcomings will backfire. Take time to reflect on the past, and let it go.
CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Think before you act. Problems will arise if you are negative or overbearing. Choose to be forgiving and objective and to look on the bright side of life. The vibe you release will determine what you receive in return.
LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — A quick reaction will lead to damage control. When in doubt, ask questions. Take control, and use your imagination. Choose your battles wisely and your friends for who they are and what they stand for.
VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Focus on what you can do to even out the playing field and to bring about positive change. Keep your rhetoric simple, truthful and easy to understand. Sticking to detail and being precise will simplify matters.
LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Choose to socialize, network and get to know newcomers in your life better. Listen more, and you'll gain insight into what others want and what you will receive in return.
SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Let your mind, intelligence and awareness lead the way. Walk away from pushy people looking to derail your confidence. Choose to expand your skills, experience and qualifications, and shoot for the stars.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — You'll have to step outside your comfort zone if you meet with opposition. Keep life simple, show kindness, dedication and loyalty, and proceed with the intent to live up to your promises.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Put emotions aside and recognize what's factual and what's fictional. Someone will try to take advantage of you or separate you from your cash if you are too accommodating.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Stop, look around you, assess your situation and don't fear making a reverse maneuver. A simpler alternative is within reach if you are rational and willing to compromise.
PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — You have plenty to gain if you research and map out a path forward that is dedicated to a beneficial outcome. Avoid temptation, indulgence and letting others dictate what your next move is.

WEAK HANDS CAN STILL WIN TRICKS
 William Arthur Ward, who coined many inspirational maxims, said, "A true friend knows your weaknesses but shows you your strengths."
 A bridge player with a weak hand can sometimes do well by sounding strong. Look at today's South hand. North opens one diamond. What should South do?
 The textbooks tell South that without six points, he should pass. However, he has two five-card majors — and we love majors. He ought to bid one spade. Yes, it is not without risk, but he has a reasonable chance to improve the contract.
 Here, North will raise to four spades. That would perhaps give South momentary pause, but when he sees the dummy, it will ease his concerns.
 After West leads the club queen, how should declarer plan the play?
 If South had passed over one diamond and West had passed also, that contract would probably have gone down one. But maybe West would have balanced with two clubs or (better) a takeout double. Then, though, North-South would have had a second chance to find their spade fit.
 South has three top losers: two hearts and one club. He needs to establish his heart suit. And usually, in this situation, declarer should immediately play on that suit.
 So, South wins with dummy's club ace and leads a heart to, say, his nine and West's jack. West cashes the club jack, then shifts to the diamond 10. Declarer wins with dummy's ace and plays another heart. South trumps the next diamond and ruffs a heart high. When they split 3-3, he draws trumps ending in his hand and cashes his hearts.

TIPS TO HELP YOU WRITE YOUR CLASSIFIED AD

1. IDENTIFY
Begin with the item for sale, service you are offering, or job title of the person you are looking to hire.

2. DESCRIBE
The more information you provide the reader the better the responses. Put yourself in the buyer's place. What would you want to know?

3. INCLUDE PRICE
Research shows that people are more interested when they now the price. If the price will be negotiable, say so.

4. BE HOME
When you run your ad, be home or specify the hours that buyers can call.

5. DON'T EXAGGERATE
List the features and the condition of the item. Make your description attractive and believable.
