ASTROGRAPH

Your Birthday

SATURDAY,
DECEMBER 13, 2025

By Eugenia Last

Your charm and charisma will carry weight this year. Step up to the podium and let your leadership qualities prevail. The more you are willing to do, the higher the returns. Remember, if you want to take the lead, you must put in the time and discipline to make your dreams come true.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Let your charm lead the way, and you'll dazzle. Focus on personal gain, growth and quality of life. Your confident attitude will make onlookers gravitate toward you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — A change in routine or pastimes will broaden your outlook and encourage you to get out and meet interesting people. Check out what's available in your community, and personal growth will sprout.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Mental and physical interaction will encourage you to share your thoughts and strive for a richer, fuller everyday routine. Improve your life without spending money.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — Take a step back and a moment to recognize what's working for you and what isn't. Distance yourself from takers and people who drain and deplete you mentally, physically and financially.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Pay attention, nurture meaningful relationships and update your appeal and pastimes to suit your mood and schedule. Change begins with you. Take the initiative and don't look back.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) — Home improvements and open discussions with loved ones will pave the way to a better environment. Honesty is necessary if you want to reach common ground.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — Be on the lookout for opportunities. Make a difference by donating your time and offering your skills, knowledge and experience to a cause that motivates you.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Take a serious look at what you've accomplished and what's left undone. Thoughts followed by actions will lead to new beginnings; they're never easy, but they're always rewarding.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Socializing will be a blast if you stick to what you can afford and handle. Indulgence may tempt you, but the best results will come from dedicating your time, patience and expenses to something that makes you feel good.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Take a moment to rejuvenate. Consider what's working for you and let go of what isn't. It's time to explore the possibilities, make changes and fulfill your long-term desires.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Travel, consider options and initiate change. Don't rely on others or settle for living someone else's dream. Be the master of your destiny, and you'll discover what life's all about.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — A change of scenery will alter your perspective and help you explore your dreams from various angles. Realizing that you don't need to overspend or indulge to be happy will help you pay off debt and ease stress.

FIRST REDOUBLE,
THEN A NEW SUIT

Yesterday, we saw that if the opener bids one of a suit, the next player makes a takeout double, and the responder bids a lower-ranking suit at the two-level, this shows a weak hand. So, what does it mean if the responder redoubles first, then bids a new suit on the second round?

Right — logically, it must be forcing. The responder has promised at least 10 high-card points and the hunt is on for the right contract for the opening side.

In today's deal, after responder's three-club rebid, South might continue with a three-diamond bid. Then North would presumably cue-bid three hearts to ask his partner to bid three no-trump with a heart stopper. Here, of course, South would be happy to oblige. And, as in the given sequence, South just plunges straight into our favorite contract when we have game values but no major-suit fit. (Note that five clubs fails, but five diamonds makes.)

West leads the heart king. What should South do?

Unless the heart suit is blocked, if declarer loses a trick before he has taken nine, he rates to concede at least that lost trick and four hearts. So, South should concentrate on getting seven diamond winners.

After taking the first (or second) heart trick, South cashes the diamond ace. Then, when West discards, declarer must be careful to unblock dummy's 10. Next, South leads a spade to the board, plays the diamond five to his nine, runs that suit, and cruises home with an overtrick.

Always watch the spot-cards closely to see if a suit blockage is threatened.
