Your Birthday
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 8, 2026
By Eugenia Last

Confusion will set in if you don't ask questions, verify facts and insist on explanations. Refuse to let anger and frustration bring you down. Direct your energy into taking the high road and turning a wrong into a right. Be the master of your destiny, and refuse to let outside influences rule your world.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Stop, look, listen, resolve and hit the reset button. Acting on instinct can hinder or help you, depending on how you choose to use your energy. Caution and courage together will get you where you want to go.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Acknowledge truth, look at your options and do what's right. Don't take a risk that can lead to insult, injury or illness, but do make your point heard loud and clear.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — Don't mistake what's true for what isn't. Emotions and money won't mix. Take time to digest what someone offers you before you take a leap of faith and buy into someone else's future.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Extend a helping hand, not cash. It's what you do that makes a difference. If you feel passionate about a cause, volunteer your time. Say no to bullies and align yourself with those willing to do the legwork.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Embrace what's feasible, and distance yourself from what isn't. Learn all you can, and discuss your plans with those who support and help you achieve your goal.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) —

Communication is the road to victory. A passionate approach to life and love will lead to the happiness you desire. You cannot buy love, but you can earn it through actions.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Be careful what you wish for. Something appears to be off. Communication will lead to positive change, greater self-image and a closer relationship with those who truly matter.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Bounce your ideas off someone you trust, and an unexpected opportunity will reveal itself. Travel, educational pursuits and delving into something that excites you are apparent.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — Proceed with caution. It will be easy to make a mistake if you don't question what's happening around you or what someone tells you. Exaggeration is apparent, and so is overspending.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Denial will work against you. Put your energy into finding out the truth, what's possible and what to avoid, and protect your investments, home and possessions from pressure tactics and scammers.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) — Protect your health and well-being. Steer clear of events that can lead to illness or injury. It's up to you to enhance your life by bringing about positive change.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) — Communication will spare you wasting time. A change of environment, location or scenery will help you come to terms with what you require to feel fulfilled, happy and at peace with yourself.

PUSHED INTO GAME, FINESSE CORRECTLY

Sam Levenson, a comedian and author, said, "If you die in an elevator, be sure to push the Up button."

If your partner bids up, you (or he) had better know how to push — play — the cards correctly.

In today's deal, South is catapulted into four spades. What should he do after West leads the club ace and continues with the club king?

In answer to North's takeout double, South might have expediently responded one diamond. North was less likely to get excessively enthusiastic opposite a minor-suit bid than opposite one in a major. However, four spades can be made. (And note that five clubs doubled costs 500, more than the value of the North-South game.) North's four-club rebid was a splinter, showing four-card spade support, a very strong hand and at most a singleton club.

Declarer's basic plan should be to lose only two hearts and one club. He should aim to take four spades, one heart, four diamonds and the trick-two ruff on the board. So, after trumping the club king low, South should draw trumps, then play the ace and another heart. Suppose West takes the second heart and leads the club jack. Declarer ruffs and must finesse in diamonds — but how?

Since he might — and here does — need to take three diamond finesses, he must first lead his diamond nine — the lowest card in his hand that can hold the trick, assuming the finesse works. After winning with the diamond nine, South runs the diamond jack, plays a diamond to dummy's queen, and claims those 10 tricks.
