

THIS IS HOW THE TELEPHONE GETS INVENTED!

This is how the telephone is going to get invented. First, Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone. Next, Alexander Graham Bell took a long time to make the telephone. Then, Alexander Graham Bell has created many things just like the telephone. Finally, read along to find more interesting things about the telephone.

TELEPHONE

Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone on June 2, 1875. MIT is where it was invented. Alexander Graham Bell went to MIT college where the telephone was invented. Alexander Graham Bell is a famous inventor. Alexander Graham Bell is a great inventor.

This is how the telephone works. It sends messages to and from people. It can help if there's an emergency. If a family lives far away you can call them now. If it's a holiday you could call a family member. Telephones can help a lot.

People can send messages now and talk to like family members. If you get stuck you would most likely use a telephone. You can call people if there's an emergency. Lots of people could need a telephone in a situation. Sometimes you could really use a telephone.

In conclusion, this is how and why the telephone got made.

FUN FACT
ALEXANDER
GRAHAM BELL WAS
BORN ON MARCH 3,
1875 AND HE WAS BORN IN EDINBURGH
SCOTLAND