

Out and About

Out and About features photos of community members around the Valley and the world. Submit photos and details each week to photos@jewishaz.com by 10 a.m. Monday.

Dor L'Dor sukkah advice

Sam Baker, left, offers sukkah-building advice to Matthew Goodman, right. Baker and Goodman got to know each other on a Congregation Beth Israel trip to Israel this summer, where Goodman became a bar mitzvah.

Photo courtesy of Stacy Rosenthal

School celebration

Owen Eckstein, left, and Nate Spierer, right, both fifth-graders at Pardes Jewish Day School, shake the lulav and etrog at the school's Sukkot celebration.

Photo by Lisa Keller

Sukkot shake

Rabbi Kenneth Leitner and Ari shake the lulav and etrog together at a Sukkot celebration at Temple Beth Shalom of the East Valley's religious school.

Photo courtesy of Michele Millman

Memorable mitzvah

Holocaust survivor David Ozoroski, 93, of Mesa, shakes the lulav and etrog with, from left, David, Chana and Naftali Blotner at Chabad of Mesa. It was a special moment for Ozoroski, a survivor of Auschwitz, who said he hadn't shaken a lulav since cheder in Lodz over 75 years ago.

Photo courtesy of Rabbi Laibel Blotner

Model builders

Fourth-grade boys from the Phoenix Hebrew Academy display their model sukkahs. Pictured, from left, are Levi Goodman, Aryeh Zuckerman, Yossi Weiner, Jacob Ephraim and Levy Aleshayev.

Photo courtesy of Rabbi Ari Bleeman

Community celebration

A community Sukkot Simcha Beis Hashoava Celebration was held Oct. 20 at Chabad of Arizona. The event featured illusionist Eric Giliam and the Baba DJ Anov Brothers. The celebration recalls a special water offering made during the time of the Temple done on an intermediate day of Sukkot. More than 250 people attended.

Photo courtesy of Rabbi Laibel Blotner