

Are you passionate about national parks and conserving public lands?

Grand Teton National Park Foundation is seeking an experienced Development Officer to join our growing team. Applicants must have excellent communication and writing skills, and be a highly motivated team player. Prior experience in major gifts fundraising, sales, or a similar role preferred. This position is full-time, year-round with a generous benefits package. Visit gtnpf.org/careers for a full job description and information to apply.