

Friends of the Bridger-Teton

Executive Director

The nonprofit dedicated to supporting the Bridger-Teton National Forest is seeking an Executive Director to help shape FBT's next chapter by strengthening its organizational foundation, developing staff and partnerships, diversifying and growing revenue, and expanding FBT's ability to serve public lands and communities. The successful candidate will be thoughtful and comfortable working with federal land managers and a diversity of stakeholders. Find the full job announcement at btfriends.org/jobs/executive-director

Apply by 10/6/26 to board@btfriends.org

