SHOW REGULATIONS:

Participants will be responsible for any damages to their displays or caused by their displays.

Participant agrees to hold harmless the Jackson Hole News&Guide and the Snow King Center for any theft, loss or damage to any equipment or product displayed during the Jackson Hole News&Guide's Home, Building and Recreation Show.

Participant agrees to cooperate with Show Coordinator, providing all necessary information pertaining to materials to be displayed, lighting and electrical or flammable equipment to be contained within the booth. Participant further agrees to furnish any extension cords and install them in a safe manner.

Participant will observe and cooperate with all rules and regulations of the Snow King Center concerning smoking and the consumption of alcoholic beverages in the Center.

Participant agrees NOT to park in the upper parking lot adjacent to the front of Snow King Center. This leaves prime parking available to the show attendees. Please park at the baseball field.

NO glitter, helium balloons, hay bales, or pets are permitted in the Snow King Center.

Participant agrees to not break down any part of his/her booth until after 5pm Saturday, April 18. Failure to meet this regulation will result in loss of your preferred returning booth privilege at next year's show.

If you sell merchandise during the show, you are required by Wyoming Department of Revenue and the Town of Jackson to collect and submit 6% sales tax. Forms are available for vendors at revenue.state.wy.us.
