14 POP WARNER LITTLE SCHOLARS,
15 INC., a Pennsylvania Nonprofit
16 Corporation; and, POP WARNER
17 AUTHENTIC, INC., a Pennsylvania
18 Corporation,

19 Plaintiffs,

20 v.

21 HANESBRANDS, INC., a Maryland
22 Corporation; and, DOES 1 – 10
23 inclusive,

24 Defendants.

CASE NO. _____

COMPLAINT FOR:

1. Federal Trademark Infringement and Counterfeiting (15 U.S.C. § 1114, et seq;
2. Federal Unfair Competition, 15 U.S.C. § 1125 et seq.
3. Common Law Trademark Infringement;
4. Deceptive Practices (Cal. Civ. Code § 1770); and
5. Unfair Business Practices (Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200).

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiffs POP WARNER LITTLE SCHOLARS, INC. and POP WARNER
2 AUTHENTIC, INC. (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), by and through their undersigned
3 attorneys, complains and alleges against Defendants as follows:

4 NATURE OF THE ACTION

5 1. Plaintiffs seek injunctive relief and damages stemming from 6 Defendants HANESBRANDS, INC. and DOES 1-10’s (collectively “Defendants”) acts of trademark infringement, false designation of origin, deceptive practices, and 7 unfair competition in violation of the laws of the United States and the State of 8 California.
9

10 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11 2. This action arises under 17 U.S.C. §§ 1114 and 1125 of the Lanham
12 Act.

13 3. This Court has federal question jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331
14 and 1338 (a) and (b). The state law claims arise from the same common nucleus of 15 operative facts and transactions such that Pop Warner would ordinarily be expected
16 to try them all in a single proceeding. Accordingly, this Court may exercise 17 supplemental jurisdiction over the state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

18 4. The Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants and each of them
19 because Defendants have purposefully directed their unlawful conduct to this 20 judicial district by advertising and offering for sale products within this judicial 21 district, including through HANESBRANDS, INC.’s approximately thirty stores
22 within this judicial district, and distribution through a wide network of third-party
23 retail outlets in this judicial district. In fact, Defendant HANESBRANDS, INC.
24 specifically sought out this judicial district as its first retail location for its 25 subsidiary brand CHAMPION.<sup>1</sup>

28 <sup>1</sup> <https://www.bizjournals.com/triad/news/2018/04/09/hanebrands-champion-opens-first-u-s-retail-store.html>

1 5. Venue in this judicial district is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)-(c) 2 because this is the judicial district in which a substantial part of the acts and 3 omissions giving rise to the claims occurred.

4 THE PARTIES

5 6. Plaintiff POP WARNER LITTLE SCHOLARS, INC. (“Plaintiff” or 6 “PWLS”), is a Pennsylvania Nonprofit Corporation with a principal place of 7 business at 580 Middletown Boulevard, #D-200, Langhorne, Pennsylvania 19047.

8 7. Plaintiff POP WARNER AUTHENTIC, INC. (“PWA”) is a
9 Pennsylvania Corporation with a principal place of business at 580 Middletown
10 Boulevard, #D-200, Langhorne, Pennsylvania 19047.

11 8. Upon information and belief, Defendant HANESBRANDS, INC.
12 (“HANESBRANDS”) is a Corporation organized and existing under the laws of 13 the State of Maryland, having its principal place of business at 1000 East Hanes
14 Mill Road Winston-Salem, North Carolina 27105.

15 9. Upon information and belief, Defendants DOES 1-10, inclusive, are 16 other parties not yet identified who have infringed Plaintiffs’ trademarks, engaged 17 in unfair competition, or engaged in one or more of the wrongful practices alleged 18 herein. The true names, whether corporate, individual or otherwise, of Defendants
19 1 through 10, inclusive, are presently unknown to Plaintiffs, who therefore sue said
20 Defendants by such fictitious names, and will seek leave to amend this Complaint 21 to show their true names and capacities when same have been ascertained.

22 10. Upon information and belief, at all times relevant hereto each of the 23 Defendants was the agent, affiliate, officer, director, manager, principal, alter-ego, 24 and/or employee of the remaining Defendants and was at all times acting within 25 the scope of such agency, affiliation, alter-ego relationship and/or employment; 26 and actively participated in or subsequently ratified and adopted, or both, each and 27 all of the acts or conduct alleged, with full knowledge of all the facts and 28 circumstances, including, but not limited to, full knowledge of each and every

1 violation of Plaintiffs’ rights and the damages to Plaintiffs proximately caused 2 thereby.

3 PLAINTIFFS AND THE POP WARNER BRAND

4 11. PWLS is a nonprofit organization that provides American football, 5 cheerleading, and dance for over 325,000 youths aged five to sixteen years old, in 6 several nations. It is the largest youth football organization in the United States
7 with three separate leagues in Los Angeles County alone. PWLS is the only 8 national youth sports organization in America that requires its participants to 9 perform adequately in the classroom before permitting them to play. Further, 10 PWLS is the only national youth sports organization in America that rewards its 11 members for their outstanding performance in the classroom.

12 12. Central to its brand as the premier governing body for youth athletics
13 is the “Pop Warner” logo (the “Logo”), for which PWLS owns two Federal 14 Trademark Registrations.

15 13. PWLS’s Federal Trademark Registration No. 0816322 for the word
16 mark “Pop Warner” (the “Word Mark”), covers “[o]rganizing and servicing boys’ 17 football teams to promote sportsmanship and scholarships.” PWLS’s first use in 18 commerce was in 1933 and the Word Mark was registered in 1966.

28

1           14. PWLS’s Federal Trademark Registration No. 3261740 (the “Design
2 Mark”), covers “[c]lothing,” including “uniforms” and “uniform jerseys,” as well
3 as “[o]rganizing and conducting youth football, flag football, and cheerleading
4 teams to promote sportsmanship and scholarship.” PWLS has owned said
5 trademark since 2002. The Design Mark is reproduced below:

13           15. Historically, PWLS only sold patches bearing the Logo and licensed 14 its rights in the Logo to select manufacturers for uniforms and jerseys.

15           16. In 2020 PWA, a subsidiary of PWLS, became the sole authorized 16 manufacturer of PWLS merchandise, including uniforms, uniform jerseys, and 17 PWLS patches. Thus, PWLS and PWA are the sole owner and licensee of the 18 “Pop Warner” brand and trademarks

19           17. PWLS adopted, used, and licensed the Logo in connection with youth 20 football, cheer, and dance programs since 1933, and in connection with clothing
21 since 2002. Accordingly, PWLS owns longstanding common law trademark rights
22 and has engaged in continuous use of the Logo since 1933 to the present.

23           18. Services provided and products sold under PWLS’s Logo have been 24 extensively advertised and promoted in the United States.

25           19. As a result of the advertising and promotion, the Logo is widely 26 recognized by consumers, immediately identifying Plaintiffs as the exclusive 27 source, licensor, or endorser of the services and products to which the Logo is 28 affixed or displayed, and signifying goodwill of incalculable value.

1 20. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that Defendants, and each of them,
2 were manufacturing or having manufactured, marketing, distributing, and selling
3 merchandise that exploits the “Pop Warner” brand and trademarks (“Accused
4 Products”). This merchandise includes items advertised and sold by Defendants
5 bearing the Logo, which indicate and imply that the Accused Products were 6 manufactured, endorsed, or approved by Plaintiffs.

7 DEFENDANTS’ UNLAWFUL CONDUCT

8 21. On or about July 6, 2020, counsel for Plaintiffs notified
9 HANESBRAND that its subsidiary brand’s – CHAMPION – website offered 10 merchandise using the Word Mark, without license, and requesting confirmation of 11 the steps taken to remedy the foregoing. HANESBRAND did not respond to 12 Plaintiffs’ request.

13 22. On or about December 2, 2020, counsel for Plaintiffs again notified
14 HANESBRAND that it was and continued to infringe the Word Mark by 15 unlawfully using it to advertise football uniforms and for improper search engine 16 optimization. Non-inclusive exemplar of HANESBRAND’s improper use of the 17 Word Mark is provided below:

24 23. Moreover, HANESBRANDS’ products are substantially similar in 25 style and substance to those garments sold and licensed exclusively by Plaintiffs.
26 By advertising products using the Word Mark, HANESBRANDS is appropriating 27 Plaintiffs’ brand of academic and athletic excellence.

28

1 24. PWLS did not authorize the above-alleged conduct by Defendants,
2 and such conduct is in violation of PWLS’s rights as the exclusive owner and 3 licensor of the Design and Word Marks.

4 25. Defendants are marketing and providing the Accused Products in the 5 same channels of trade as Plaintiffs.

6 26. Defendants’ use of the PWLS Word Mark has caused, and will 7 continue to cause, confusion in the marketplace, harm to the business reputation,
8 and loss of goodwill in the Word Mark. Plaintiffs have and will continue to suffer 9 losses to their business relations with consumers and prospective consumers for 10 their services and products.

11 FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
12 (Trademark Infringement Under 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1) - Against all Defendants)

13 27. Plaintiffs repeat, reallege and incorporate herein by reference as 14 though fully set forth the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs,
15 inclusive, of this Complaint.

16 28. PWLS is the owner of the valid, distinctive Word and Design Marks
17 as to, inter alia, men’s, women’s, and children’s uniforms and uniform jersey
18 products, and organizing and servicing youth football, flag football, and cheer
19 programs. PWLS has been using the Word Mark in commerce continuously since 20 1933. PWLS has been using the Design Mark in commerce continuously since 21 2002. Through Plaintiffs’ promotion and publicity, the Word and Design Marks 22 have acquired secondary meaning. The Word and Design Marks are strong and 23 well known and are entitled to a broad scope of protection.

24 29. The level of recognition that the Word and Design Marks have 25 amongst the segment of society to whom Defendants sell and market uniforms and 26 uniform jerseys is high; and believed to be the reason for which Defendants have 27 adopted and used the Word Mark on their Infringing Products and in 28 advertisements.

1           30. Defendants' use of PWLS's Word Mark in advertisements and on 2 Infringing Products is likely to cause confusion or mistake, or to deceive as to the 3 affiliation, connection, or association with Plaintiffs, or as to the origin, 4 sponsorship or approval of Defendants' goods and services. Defendants' use of the 5 Word Mark has not been authorized by Plaintiffs. Consumers, including 6 Defendants' customers, are likely to believe that their improper use of the Word
7 Mark indicate an affiliation, connection, association with, and/or sponsorship or 8 approval of Plaintiffs.

9           31. Defendants' conduct constitutes trademark infringement in violation
10 of Section 32 of the Federal Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

11           32. As a result of Defendants' infringement, Plaintiffs have been injured 12 in an amount not yet fully determined, but believed to be in excess of $75,000, 13 exclusive of costs and interests. Further, Plaintiffs have suffered and will continue 14 to suffer irreparable harm, and they have no adequate remedy at law with respect to 15 this injury. Unless this Court enjoins Defendants' infringing acts, Plaintiffs will 16 continue to suffer a risk of irreparable harm.

17           33. Upon information and belief, by their acts, Defendants have made and 18 will make substantial profits and gains to which they are not in law or equity 19 entitled.

20           34. On information and belief, Defendants' infringing and counterfeiting
21 acts have been knowing, intentional, wanton, and willful, entitling Plaintiffs to 22 treble damages, profits, attorneys fees, and costs pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117.

23           35. Defendants' acts have damaged and will continue to damage 24 Plaintiffs, and Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law. Unless Defendants are 25 permanently enjoined from their unlawful use of the Word and Design Mark, 26 Plaintiffs will suffer irreparable harm.

11 Word and Design Marks and trade name, including all common law rights.
