REPORT ALL SCAMS TO YOUR LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY

Dear Mr./Ms. [REDACTED]

The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) has identified that sensitive personal information originating from your network, or that of a service provider, has been exposed on a peer-to-peer (P2P) network. This security breach may have resulted from hacking, unsecured public Wi-Fi usage, unsafe web browsing, or online transactions. The compromised data is at risk of exploitation for identity theft and financial crimes, including unauthorized bank account creation and money laundering activities.

As part of an ongoing federal investigation, [REDACTED] has been identified as a primary suspect in a large-scale money laundering operation. Given this serious matter, the FTC is formally notifying you of your legal obligation to immediately secure all assets and ensure full compliance with applicable U.S. federal laws, including but not limited to:

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
PROTECTING AMERICA'S CONSUMERS

officer, may constitute tampering with federal evidence and subject to immediate enforcement.

Failure to take immediate corrective action may result in asset freezes, seizure orders, and full-scale federal prosecution under U.S. law.

FINAL DEADLINE TO RESPOND:

Before FEB 25, 2026

For any inquiries or further instructions, please contact:

Contact at: +1 202-276-9750 ↔ FTC ACTUAL PHONE NUMBER: 202-326-2222

Mail at: support@ftc.us.com ↔ FTC HAS NO SUPPORT EMAIL!

This letter serves as a formal legal advisory and final warning. Non-compliance will result in immediate enforcement actions, which may jeopardize your financial standing, assets, and legal status.

Sincerely,

[Officer ERIC KRESSMAN]
[Fraud Investigative Commissioner]

IMPOSTER SCAM:

When a scammer lies and pretends to be someone they're not to trick you into giving them money, access to your financial accounts, or your personal information. They pretend to be someone you know or from a GOVERNMENT AGENCY or both! They try to gain your trust and get you to believe they are who they claim to be.
