Things heat up between Abby and Zack as they take their relationship to the next level. Lauren encourages Scott to break things off with Sharon. When Michael calls Lauren out, she admits she may have overreacted. Charlie is stand-offish, but Cane works hard to win his son over. As Charlie begins to soften, the warm moment is interrupted by an angry Mattie, who wants to know why Juliet moved in with Cane. Cane tries to explain himself to his children, but, while Charlie is more forgiving, Mattie remains closed off. Charlie tells Mattie that their father is making an effort, and he asks his sister to give him a chance. Victoria declines when Victor offers to buy Brash & Sassy. When Victoria makes a pitch to Devon and Neil for another loan, Devon turns her down. Nick is not happy when Faith pressures him into spending Halloween at Crimson Lights with Scott and Sharon. Victor arrives to visit his grandchildren, and he toys with Nick by revealing that he bought out Nick's liquor distributor and will be raising the prices.

Late Laughs

The Late Show With Stephen Colbert

We could be reaching a whole new level of angry Trump, because a report out today says people close to the president say he is "unstable," "losing a step" and "unraveling." So keep in mind, that means, up till now, he's been "raveled."

The Late Show With James Corden

Do you remember AOL instant messenger? It was like the precursor to modern-day texting. Last week, AOL announced it will be shutting down AIM in December. I know, I know. This is devastating news for three of you.

Jimmy Kimmel Live

Mike Pence flew all the way to Indiana — to a game where he knew almost for sure the players were going to kneel — he pretended to be surprised and stormed out in a huff. For someone who seems to disapprove of gay people so much, Mike Pence is a bit of a drama queen, he really is.

Late Night With Seth Meyers
