Central Texas School Districts Important Days & Holidays

SPECIAL TO THE HERALD

Students within the Killeen Independent School District will be required to follow dress codes at their respective campuses during the 2018-2019 school year and are advised to contact their specific school for what is considered appropriate.

The general district dress policy but some campuses have adopted their own standards.

Campuses that have adopted a standard dress policy for students are: Iduma, Montague Village and Peebles Elementary Schools, as well as Palo Alto and Rancier Middle schools.

Campuses that have not adopted a standard dress policy shall follow the KISD Dress Code outlined in the Student Code of Conduct, a hard copy of which is available online at www.killeenisd.org.

Throughout the district, students are required to be dressed and groomed in a manner that is clean, neat and does not pose a health or safety hazard to themselves or others.

Students who violate the dress code shall be advised by the campus administrator and shall be given an opportunity to comply.

The opportunity to comply may take a variety of forms, but in most cases, a student will be allowed to call parents for a change of clothes.

Cove ISD board to approve dress code changes for new school year

SPECIAL TO THE HERALD

COPPERAS COVE — The Copperas Cove Independent School District dress code is established to teach grooming and hygiene, prevent disruption and minimize safety hazards.

Campus administrators and faculty are charged with enforcing the dress code.

Administrators will use their professional judgment in determining where attire is distracting or causes a disturbance.

Students are expected to be dressed and groomed in a manner appropriate for a public school educational environment. The provisions of the dress and grooming code are enforced at school and school-sponsored activities.

District policy prohibits any apparel, jewelry, accessory, notebook or manner of grooming which, by virtue of its color, arrangement, trademark or other attribute, denotes membership in a group or gang that advocates drug use or exhibits behaviors that interfere with the normal and orderly operation of a school.

Certain elective courses or extracurricular activities may require more stringent dress or appearance standards than for the general student body.

The district leaves the choice of hair length with the students and their parents and whether or not beards or mustaches are to be worn.

They must accept the accompanying responsibility of keeping all hair properly groomed.

Shoes must be worn at all times. No shoes with wheels may be worn.

Any type of hat or head covering is prohibited.

All shirts must completely cover the midriff when arms are fully extended above the head and when seated.

Parents can review the complete dress code in the CCISD Student Handbook and Code of Conduct at https://www.ccisd.com/155061_2 beginning on page 52.
