

Crime Stoppers of Rochester & Olmsted County
Hotline
1-800-222-TIPS (8477)

SEEKING HOMICIDE INFORMATION

Victim:

Robert E. Volgmann, age 41

The Rochester Police Department is requesting information on the homicide of Robert E. Volgmann.

Robert E. Volgmann was assaulted and killed in his apartment in northwest Rochester. He was last seen alive on Easter Sunday, April 12, 2020. There was a snowstorm that day. The bedroom window of his ground floor apartment was open for several days afterwards. The landlord went to check on Robert and called police to the apartment. Robert's body was discovered four years ago on April 16, 2020.

Bobby, as he was known to friends and family, was a jack-of-all-trades and could fix just about anything. He especially enjoyed building bikes. He also loved to travel and dreamed of moving to Hawaii someday.

Anyone with information regarding the above homicide is being asked to contact Detective Geoff Kusick at 507-328-2898.

You may also leave an anonymous tip by calling Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477) or text your tip to Crime Stoppers using the P3 Tips app (available at Google Play or App Store).

If the tip leads to the arrest of the subject(s), the tipster may be eligible for a cash reward.

Ref: Rochester Police Case #: 20-17002