Re: City and County of Honolulu's Demand for Surrender of Offensive
'FCKBLM' Special Numbered License Plates

Dear Mr.

The Department of the Corporation Counsel, City and County of Honolulu, has been authorized to take legal action against you for your failure to surrender the special number plates issued to you with the letters "FCKBLM".

The Department of Customer Services, City and County of Honolulu informed you on numerous occasions that the FCKBLM plates are "publicly objectionable," and accordingly are in violation of section Haw. Rev. Stat. § 249-9.1. You received notice by letter from the Department of Customer Services dated July 6, 2021 that the number plates were recalled and were to be returned as soon as possible, in exchange for another license plate at no charge. You failed to comply with the demand. Since then, the registration for your vehicle has expired, and you are not permitted to renew your registration unless the plates are returned. The City will take all necessary steps to seize your vehicle, subject to redemption after payment of delinquent taxes, penalties, storage costs and any other charges incident to the seizure. See Haw. Rev. Stat. § 249-10.

Please contact the undersigned immediately upon receipt of this letter at (808) 768-5238 or justin.luney@honolulu.gov to turn over the "FCKBLM" license plates. If we do not receive the aforementioned special license plates by July 22, 2022, the City will take all necessary action against you available by law.
