FREMONT COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

PRESS RELEASE

Sheriff Kevin Aistrope Reports:

- On 11/08/2023, deputies arrested Timothy Mark Garnder, age 63 of Hamburg, Iowa for Harassment 3rd Degree. He was released on bond.

- On 11/09/2023, deputies made a traffic stop in connection with a felony theft that occurred in Nebraska. The passenger, SANTO MONTENEGRO SARDINA, age 38 of St Joseph, Missouri fled the vehicle on foot near the 6-mile marker on Interstate 29. The Mills County Drone team and a Glenwood Police K9 and the Iowa State Patrol, assisted in tracking MONTENEGRO-SARDINA who was concealed in a field, and he was taken into custody.

The driver, JEAN LESYAN MIRBALL SCULL, age 27 of Lenexa, Kansas, was initially placed under arrest at the scene. MIRBALL was able to escape from a Fremont County Patrol car and fled the scene on foot, while handcuffed. MIRABALL SCULL was unable to be located that evening.

On 11/10/2023, the Fremont County Sheriff's Office was contacted by Atchison County Sheriff's Office in Missouri about a male, wearing handcuffs, walking along the railroad tracks near Phelps City, Missouri.

The Fremont County K9 Unit was called to assist and located MIRBALL walking south of Langdon, Missouri. MIRBALL fled again into a field and was apprehended after a foot pursuit by a Fremont County Deputy. MIRBALL was arrested without further incident by the Missouri State Patrol and Atchison County Sheriff's Office. On 11/11/2023, MIRBALL was transported to Iowa on a felony warrant.

Montenegro is being held on Theft 2nd Degree and Interference with Official Acts. He is being held on a $10,000 cash bond as well as several out of state warrants.

Disclaimer: A criminal charge is merely an accusation, and the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
