Lewis Central Crowned 2025 Hawkeye Ten Baseball Champions; All-Conference Teams Announced

The Hawkeye Ten Conference proudly congratulates the Lewis Central Titans on capturing the 2025 Hawkeye Ten Baseball Championship, finishing conference play with an outstanding 19-1 record. This title is a testament to the Titans' consistency, depth, and high-level play throughout the season, and reflects the strength of the program from top to bottom. Lewis Central concluded the year with a 27-9 overall record, leading the conference in both wins and winning percentage.

Closely behind, Harlan Community delivered an exceptional season of its own, finishing 18-2 in conference and 25-12 overall, showcasing the competitiveness at the top of the H-10.

In recognition of the incredible talent across the league, the 2025 Hawkeye Ten All-Conference Baseball Teams have been selected by conference coaches. These student-athletes demonstrated excellence on the diamond and helped make this season one of the most competitive in recent memory.
