Nodaway Valley Community School District Receives Invitation to Join Western Iowa Conference

Greenfield, IA – On June 11, Superintendent Paul Croghan received an official invitation for Nodaway Valley Community Schools to join the Western Iowa Conference.

Currently, Nodaway Valley is a member of the Pride of Iowa Conference. The district has until August 1, 2025, to make an official decision regarding interest in this opportunity. Final decisions on joining the Western Iowa Conference will not take place until after August 1, 2025.

Activities Director Sara Honnold will lead the coordination of meetings with Nodaway Valley coaches to gather feedback, assess levels of interest, and evaluate the potential advantages and challenges of a conference change. Based on staff input, the district may also host a community informational meeting before making a final determination.
