(Insert facts supporting each element of charge including location in ____ County, date and time of crime)

On September 27, 2024, I, Detective Wesley Kissinger went to the [REDACTED] for a camera found, hidden the girl's locker room. A male suspect, later identified as Rodger Copeland, was identified on the camera, after there was a search warrant for the camera. Copeland was later arrested and brought to the McDonald County Sheriff's Office, where I interviewed him. After his rights were read to him, and he understood and wanted to speak with me, Copeland stated he put the camera in the girl's locker room. Copeland then stated he wanted to experiment, and wanted to look at the girl's bodies, and faces, because they were pretty. Copeland stated he did it because it had to do a lot with him being lonely.

Copeland his being held at the McDonald County Sheriff's Office on a 24-hour hold.
