

TOWN HALL POWER STUGGLES: MARCH 7, 2025 HANDOUTS

Ways to Submit Comments to the PSC

Submit Comments In Writing -- Your comments are appreciated and will be kept on file with the Missouri Public Service Commission. Some of the information provided in the comments box will be publicly viewable. Comments should not include any personal information or sensitive information that you do not wish to be made public

Attend Public Hearings and Provide Testimony -- The Commission holds public hearings to provide an opportunity for consumers to express their views, opinions and concerns about a case before the Commission. Your statement will be transcribed by a court reporter and will be part of the official case record. These dates are not set yet.

Find Out Information About Cases Before The Commission -- The Commission's Electronic Filing & Information System (EFIS) will allow you to view case documents on-line. Most documents are in PDF format unless otherwise noted. Users can search by case number, utility, and date of filing.

Using the PSC Electronic Filing & Information System (EFIS)

- If you know the case number of the Commission case you are interested in, please proceed to the <https://efis.psc.mo.gov/Case> page and input the Commission case number in the "Case No." field (e.g., Liberty Rate Case No. ER-2024-0261), then press the "enter" key or click the "Search" button.
- If you do not know the exact Commission case number, please proceed to the Existing Case e-Filing & Search page and search for the filing date using the "Date Filed" field.
- If you have questions about how to access Commission case files, please refer to our fact sheet, <https://psc.mo.gov/CMSInternetData/ConsumerInformation/efis.pdf>.
