

Out-of-Pocket Costs

- Boone Health offers a 40% self-pay discount off the base price for uninsured patients.
- MU Health Care offers a self-pay discount of 60% off University Hospital total charges and 25% off total charges for University Physicians
- The data below compares the cost of one selected MRI scan and one CT scan, with the discount for uninsured patients applied to all services calculated. Please note that Boone Health and MU Health Care offer a wide range of services, each with varying costs.

Service Category	Out of network Boone Health	Out of network MU Health Care
Primary Care Visit	Cost depends on appointment length, ranges from $138-$219	Charges start at $313 for a new patient visit and start at $272 for a returning patient visit
Urgent Care	Cost depends on the service, ranges from $78-$236. This amount does not include any labs or imaging as part of the estimate.	MU Health Care Urgent Care visit (level 1) is $310. This amount does not include any labs or imaging as part of the estimate.
Diagnostic radiology services: MRI	MRI Abdomen W/O contrast $724.80	MRI Abdomen W/ W/O contrast $1,868.80
Diagnostic radiology services: CTs	CT abdomen W/O contrast $624	CT Abdomen & Pelvis W/O contrast $822.40
Ambulance Services Ground & Air	Basic life support, non-emergency starts at $533.40 and ranges to $1,281 for advanced life support. There is an additional cost of $1.90 per a mile traveled.	20-mile transport for Basic Life Support costs $2500 and Advanced Life Support for 20-mile transportation is $3,200