Summertime in Historic Downtown Auburn Itinerary

Thursday Afternoon: Drop off your bags at one of our local Airbnb's before having to choose between some favorites, Mimi's Retreat or Pizza Forum. After dinner take a stroll down to Classic City Creamery for an ice cream cone and head on over to the Courthouse Park, have a seat while enjoying the waterfall. Wander around the court house square as you stretch your legs before heading back for a good night's sleep.

Friday: Relish the moment of a perfect morning cappuccino at 9th Street Brew with a homemade muffin or gourmet breakfast.

Maybe send the guys to explore our rich history of the Automobile Museums, so you ladies can explore the fabulous boutique shops of downtown. Shopping is plentiful starting on the South end of the historic district with Forget Me Not, Forever 18, All About You Boutique, Little Sprouts, Birch & Bell and Lyn Maree's. Each shop offers unique one-of-a-kind clothes shopping experience.

Need a little clothing distraction? How about a visit to the Historic Carbaugh Jeweler's it is like stepping back in time where the master craftsman, Mike can take your old jewelry and create a new one-of-a-kind piece or pick out something new from the case. If your tummy is starting to rumble just a bit, but you're not quite ready for lunch how about a stop at Classic City Cookies for yummy treat. Then off to The Paper Gourmet and Atrium Market Place, before settling down for homemade lunch, whether it be sipping a tea as you finish off a delicious sandwich and salad or an afternoon tea in the outside garden at Cranberry Cottage, maybe sitting at the top of the town at The Deli at Sixth and Main is more your style.

Back to shopping? The block of 6th and Main and around the corner to 5th Street will not disappoint. Need to restock your kitchen with some of The Olive Twist gourmet ingredients, from fresh olive oils, aged balsamic, hand-crafted seasonal seasonings, to loose leaf teas. Enjoy free olive oil tastings daily! Check out the art and supplies

FROM THE GROVE TO YOUR TABLE!

Olive Twist is THE place to purchase gourmet gifts, including:
olive oil | balsamic vinegar | loose leaf tea | spices | salts & peppers iron skillet | and so much more!

at Heirloom Galleries, before going back in time as you stroll through Country Lane General Store, the candy selection will bring back childhood memories. Just around the corner on 5th is Nature's Mercantile where you find a wonderful selection of homemade soaps, lotions & more before stepping over into Heavenly Creations where you will be inspired to purchase some home decor.

Across Jackson Street is what looks to be a small little music shop, don't let Kim's Music Korner's fool you. As you walk in you will realize you are in music heaven. Records, musical instruments, sheet music would be just scratching the surface. Let's take you back down to North Main and 7th Street as you can choose between taking a seat on the outdoor patio at Cricket's on 7th (21+) as you eat the legendary Cricket Burger or slip into a booth at Mad Anthony's for an amazing selection of appetizers, entrees and handcrafted beers. After dinner have some fun at Auburn Brewing Co. whether you want to watch a game on the tv or sit and enjoy a board game on the patio. How about a flight of Mead Wine at Cupka's Bee Happy Meadery?

Saturday: Just a brisk 15-minute walk down North Main Street you will admire all the beautiful historic homes on your way to the North Main Street Diner for a huge made to order breakfast as sit on an old fashion stool at the breakfast counter. Next up, enjoy the Auburn Farmer's Market, take home some fresh produce, homemade goodies or a beautiful piece of local art. Don't miss out on a treasure-trove of collectables by stepping into The Blue Fruit Jar antique store.

Each summer the Auburn Art Commission and DABA (Downtown Business Association) work together to bring art to our downtown. This art trail will lead you to the beautiful historic Eckhart Library. Even if you don't plan to use your library card step inside to appreciate the architecture and breath-taking stain glass windows. Don't miss checking out the stunning 100-yr old water fountain.

Just when you thought you were done shopping you have one or maybe two more clothing boutique to explore. Head down South Jackson Street to Betsy's Boutique and Via Eve Boutique on S. Wayne St. By this time, you might be ready for a bite to eat. Have you ever had the famous Brown House Coney Dog or chocolate shake? Grab an order to go, then head south and find your perfect picnic table in the beautiful Eckhart Park. If you would rather have a seat inside to eat, check out Sandra D's Italian or the Auburn House for family style plate of fried fish.

Back to your headquarters to freshen up before you stroll off to dinner. The Auburn City Steakhouse not only for an absolutely extraordinary upscale gourmet dinner in the city's old hardware store, the ambiance is phenomenal too! Your night is not over yet, there is still more to come, just a block north pull up a barstool to the new bourbon bar Barrel & Blaze. If you are adventurous, how would you like to go on a secret mission to find Door 13, a speakeasy with amazing craft cocktails.

Sunday: Head down to the corner of 5th and Main to Bakers Dozen for a donut treat for every age. Sit out on the bench and watch the world go by. Did you bring your bike? How about going next door to Carve, our wonderful Artisan Meat Market. Pick up a picnic lunch to take on a bike ride. Check out our bike trails through the Auburn Parks Department website. Now that you have worked up an appetite, how about heading on your bike to Rieke Park to enjoy that picnic lunch you brought with you.

Thank you for visiting our historic downtown. We hope you enjoyed your stay as much as we enjoy it every day. Can't wait to see again!
