Summertime in Historic Downtown Auburn Itinerary

The historic town of Auburn is very walkable, but also car friendly.

Thursday: As you arrive in Historic Downtown Auburn, drop off your bags at Grey Squirrel Lofts before picking out your dinner options of Mimi’s Retreat or Pizza Forum. After dinner take a stroll down to Classic City Creamery for an Ice Cream cone and head on over to the Courthouse Park have a seat and enjoy the soothing sound of the waterfall as you finish off your ice cream cone. Wander around the court house square as you stretch your legs before heading back for a good night’s sleep.

Friday: Relish the moment of a perfect morning cappuccino at 9th Street Brew with a homemade muffin or gourmet breakfast.

Now you are ready to really start your day. Send the men to the Auburn Cord Duesenberg, NATMUS Ford V-8 or DeKalb County Horseman’s Museum so you ladies can explore the fabulous boutique shops of downtown Auburn.

Shopping is plentiful starting on the South end of the historic district with Forget Me Not, All

About You Boutique, Little Sprouts, Birch & Bell and Lyn Maree’s. Each shop offers unique one-of-a-kind clothes shopping experience.

Need a little distraction? How about a visit to the Historic Carbaugh Jewelers? If your tummy is starting to rumble just a bit, but you’re not quite ready for lunch how about a stop at Classic City Cookies for yummy treat. Then off to The Paper Gourmet, Atrium Market, Tales Pre-loved books, Timothy’s Jewelry, and B Refined. Need a break from shopping schedule a massage at Auburn Massage Center on 5th Street.

Time to sit and relax for lunch, there are some wonderful choices whether it be sipping a tea as you finish off a homemade sandwich and salad or an afternoon tea (reservations suggested) in the outside garden at Cranberry Cottage or maybe sitting at the top of the town at The Deli at Sixth and Main for delightful homemade soup, salad or sandwich.

Ready to stretch your legs again. how about finishing the block of 6th and Main and around the corner to 5th Street. Need to restock your kitchen? Shop at The Olive Twist for specialty foods, ogle over their selection of Mason Cash Bowls and Smithey Iron Skillets; browse their large selection of loose-leaf teas, hand-crafted herbs and spice blends; and sample some of their olive oils and balsamic vinegars. How about some more art and art supplies? Check out Heirloom Galleries. Go back in time as you stroll the aisles at Country Lane General Store. Get some candy that brings back childhood memories. Across the street on N. Main Street is Nature’s Mercantile where you find a wonderful selection of homemade soaps & lotions. Heavenly Creations is close by with a variety of home decor.

Across Jackson Street is what looks to be a small little music shop, don’t let Kim’s Music Korner’s fool you. As you walk in you will realize you are in music heaven. Records, musical instruments, sheet music would be just scratching the surface.

Let’s take you back down to North Main and 7th Street as you can choose between taking a seat on the outdoor patio at Cricket’s on 7th (21+) as you eat the legendary Cricket Burger or slip into a booth at Mad Anthony’s for an amazing selection of appetizers and treats along with long list of entrees and handcrafted beers. After dinner have some fun at ABC (Auburn Brewing Co) whether you want to watch a game on the tv or sit and enjoy a board game on the patio a bonus if they have live music playing or have a flight of Mead Wine at Cupka’s Bee Happy Meadery! Beer or wine not your thing, or you have the family with you, head back to 9th Street Brew for the Friday night dessert night special, no matter what the evenings feature is you will be delighted with the offering before heading off to bed.

Saturday: Just a brisk 15-minute breathtaking walk down North Main Street as you admire all the beautiful historic homes on your way to the North Main Street Diner for a huge made to order breakfast as you sit on the old soda shop style stool. Enjoy the Auburn Farmer’s Market and take home some fresh produce, homemade goodies or a beautiful piece of local art. Don’t miss out on a treasure-trove of collectables by stepping into The Blue Fruit Jar antique store, experience not just on floor jam packed with antiques and collectables, but be sure to check out the basement.

Today is the day to enjoy the summer art that you most likely passed while shopping or finish the shopping you didn’t get to yesterday. Each summer the Auburn Main Street and DABA (Downtown Business Association) work together to bring a summer art project to our downtown. This art trail will lead you to the beautiful historic Eckhart Library. Even if you don’t plan to use your library card step inside to appreciate the architecture and breath-taking stain glass windows. On your way out the back check out the over 100-year-old stunning water fountain.

Just when you thought you were done shopping you have one more clothing boutique to explore. Head down South Jackson Street to Betsy’s Boutique. By this time, you might be ready for a bite to eat. Have you ever had the famous Brown House Coney Dog or chocolate shake? Grab an order to go and take it to the Eckhart Park and sit a picnic table and enjoy a little down time. If you would rather have a seat inside to eat, check out Sandra D’s Italian or the Auburn House family style plate of fried fish.

The Auburn Cord Duesenberg Museum is open until 5 and it is just down the street from Eckhart Park. The old cars and the history is enough to fill the late afternoon, but the glory of the building itself is a gem to be seen. If you are lucky, you may just see a celebrity checking out Auburn’s car history.

Back to your headquarters to freshen up before you stroll off to dinner. May we suggest The Auburn City Steakhouse not only for an absolutely extraordinary upscale gourmet dinner in the city’s old hardware store so, the ambiance is phenomenal too! If you want something a little more casual, we suggest checking out Mad Anthony’s or one of our other wonderful dining establishments you might have missed.

Your night is not over yet there is still more to come, just a block from the steakhouse pull up a barstool to the new bourbon bar Barrel & Blaze, a cigar or two can be enjoyed in the back if that is your scene. Maybe you are adventurous and would like to go on a secret mission to find Door 13. A true hidden gem in downtown where craft cocktails and secret entrances are found.

Sunday: Sit out on the bench and watch the world go by. Did you bring your bike? How about going next door to Carve, our wonderful Artisan Meat Market and pick up a picnic lunch to take on a bike ride. Take off from 5th Street and go north on Van Buren Street and follow the bike trail out of town.

FROM THE GROVE TO YOUR TABLE!

Olive Twist is THE place to purchase gourmet gifts, including:
olive oil | balsamic vinegar | loose leaf tea | spices | salts & peppers
iron skillets | and so much more!

Summertime in Historic Downtown Auburn Itinerary Continues

Now that you have worked up an appetite how about heading on your bike to Rieke Park to enjoy that picnic lunch you brought with you.

Well, it is time to head back and load up the car for departure. You may need to stop back at Carve Artisan Meat market to fill your cooler with some Tomahawk steaks to take home to grill.

Thank you for visiting our historic downtown. We hope you enjoyed your stay as much as we enjoy it every day. Can't wait to see you again!
